Myrtle Creek Meetings Held

By RUTH M. EVANS

Two major meetings at Myrtle Creek this week featured conservation and education.

State Sen. Paul Geddes was the featured speaker at a Tuesday meeting of the South Douglas conservation Assn. The meeting drew 26 people.

President Bob Kelly of Myrtle Creek reported at the meeting that the goal for the organization this year is 1,000 members. Membership during 1953 reached 195. The organization is slanted toward encouragement of conservation, development and protection of water resources of the South Umpqua River and its tributaries.

60 Attend
Monday, the Southern Oregon Education Assn. drew 60 members to a dinner meeting to hear an impressive list of speakers. They included Kenneth Barnhart, county superintendent of schools; Walter Shold, state elementary school supervisor; Bob Sabin, county Oregon Education Assn. president; and William Bromley, superintendent of Douglas School district. The main speaker scheduled, Richard Barss, Portland, failed to arrive because of weather conditions.

Mrs. Maureen Thoreson, teacher at the new Douglas High, was program chairman. Also on her program was a panel discussing teacher tenure. Chairman was Mrs. Betty Parrott, Myrtle Creek. On the panel were Kenneth Stewart, superintendent of Riddle schools, and Mrs. Margaret Kimmel, Dillard, Paul E. Dodd and Hollis M. Hill, presented a musical skit.

Pollyanna Meet
The Myrtle Creek Pollyanna Club met at the Woman's club room today at 2 p.m. Mrs. C. E. Young, president of the Lady Lions in Myrtle Creek, reports that a goal of $100 has been set for the public card party tonight at 8 in the IOOF Hall. Tables will be set up for pinocle, canasta and bridge. Prizes will be given at each table. Left over cakes will be auctioned. Door prizes will also be awarded off for the March of Dimes.

By chewing coca leaves which contain cocaine, primitive peoples in Peru believe they can abolish fatigue and increase their physical and mental powers.
