

Young Pianists

Halladay, Rt. 2, Roseburg. The two talented young pianists are students of Miss Gladys H. Strong. (Picture by Clark's Studio).

PROMISING YOUNG musicians are Gary, 8, and Wayne, 9, above, sons of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Tyler, 659 Flagg St. Although both boys have only recently started taking piano lessons, they display considerable talent and are interested in preparing for their first recital. They are students of Mrs. S. Clarence Trued. (Picture by Clark's Studio).

LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER

Sat. Jan. 30, 1954—The News-Review, Roseburg, Ore. 5

WITH THE APPROACH of spring Douglas County music teachers are busy planning their annual spring recitals, when hundreds of young artists will be presented in entertainments for the pleasure of their parents and friends.

ORCHIDS go to all music teachers of the community as well as the five teachers helping to make this week's society feature page a success. Several of the young pianists shown on the page are beginners in music and will be in their first recital this spring.

BROOKE, 9, and her brother, Bernard Jr., 12, daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard A. Young, 1020 Council St., are both talented young pianists and are students of Mrs. C. S. Heinline. They are grandchildren of former Mayor and Mrs. A. J. Young, Roseburg, and Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Buchanan, Eugene. Brooke and Bernie are working hard on numbers to be presented in their spring piano recitals. (Picture by Clark's Studio).

A PIANO TRIO will take place at a coming recital to be given by piano teacher Miss Virginia Young, when she presents the above three students at her studio on E. Lane Street. Left to right: Julie Roberts, 9; Janet Wassom, 9, and Becky Roberts, 11. Julie and Becky are daughters of Rex Roberts and reside on Reservoir and Glen Streets. Janet is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Wassom, 843 Miller. (Picture by Clark's Studio).
