Roseburg Chapter Has 68th Birthday Party

Roseburg Chapter No. 8, Order of the Eastern Star, celebrated its 68th birthday at a stated meeting Thursday evening at the Masonic Temple with Ramona Hampton, Worthy Matron, presiding.

During the meeting the chapter honored all past matrons and past patrons. Especially honored were the fifty-year members present, Flossie Virden, who is also a past matron, and Maude Kidder a member and past matron of Manila, P. I., and an honorary member and past matron of Roseburg Chapter No. 8. The worthy matron expressed regret that a third fifty-year member, Mrs. Isadore Abraham, and Marietta Kohlhaugen, the only living charter member, were unable to attend.

The Star Points presented a dedication ceremony of the new electrically lighted pedestals, a gift to the chapter from the worthy matron and patron, Ramona and Ray Hampton. Flossie Virden accepted the gift on behalf of the chapter members.

Refreshments were served in the dining hall at the close of the regular meeting. The tables were beautifully decorated with colorful star-shaped candleholders as centerpieces with ivy between. Tiny stars similar to the big ones holding birthday candles were used as individual favors. The center table held the birthday cake, a huge sheet cake appropriately decorated with the Star emblem. Chairman of the refreshment committee was Mrs. Grant Osborn. Those assisting were: Mrs. Sig Fett, Mrs. Dean Bubar, Mrs. Myrtle Burr, Mrs. Horace Wells, Mrs. W. Howard Pattison, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Wimer and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Knudson. XI TAU CHAPTER MEETING IS HELD

Xi Tau Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, held its regular meeting Tuesday evening at the attractive home of Mrs. Roy Stein, president, on Flagg Street.

Mrs. Henry Darby reported that the chapter's recent rummage sale had been successful, and the group decided to contribute to the International Endowment Fund of the sorority, which fund sponsors two world-renowned scientists, Dr. Margaret A. Kelsall and Dr. Edward Crabb, in the Cancer Research Laboratory at the University of Colorado. The fund also supports to the extent of $1,200 per month a home for homeless girls, Girlstown, USA.

It was announced by Mrs. Darby that a pie social will be held March 19 at the Episcopal Parish Hall to which all Roseburg Beta Sigma Phis and their husbands will be invited.

Mrs. Robert A. Kent presented a very interesting program on the subject of winter gardening. "There are," she said, "flowers that can be grown to produce blooms in December, January and February—even in the snow." She described the variety of colors that can be seen in winter gardens and stated that although the winter gardener works primarily to produce color that "some flowers such as the winter heliotrope are grown also for fragrance." She urged the members to look through seed catalogs and select unfamiliar flowers with which to experiment, for in so doing "we often discover new flowers we like a great deal."

At the concluding of the meeting the hostess Mrs. Stein served refreshments to Mrs. Ralph Ohman, Mrs. William Semmler, Mrs. Morris Bowker, Mrs. Henry Darby, Mrs. Robert A. Kent and Mrs. Harrison Winston.

An Open Letter To Our Many Friends

AL MUNSON, Manager

Has been with Clark's for one year, was a free-lance photographer and studio owner for 16 years previously.

For over twenty years Clark's studio has endeavored to serve the people of Douglas County with fairness and integrity. During that time, we have seen many changes and improvements in our area, and also during this span, a major war has been fought and won.

These and many other factors have brought about price increases which seem sometimes to be beyond reason. In the face of all these changes, Clark's is proud to say that our prices, in view of services, have stayed within the boundary of fair trade, and shall continue to do so. We, of Clark's, during the year '54, make this pledge to you, our customers:

- To maintain a staff qualified to serve you.
- To stock, or have available, all photographic lines commensurate with fair trade and quality.
- To continue the reputation of the largest, finest, and most up-to-date photographic center in this area.

Again, may I and my staff thank you all for a quarter century of service that we have been able to render, and may the coming year bring you increased joy and prosperity.

Sincerely,
Carmen Clark
