DAD'S NIGHT HELD BY DILLARD PTA

"Dad's Night" at the Dillard School auditorium was an enjoyable affair for PTA members and friends last Friday evening. 7 o'clock potluck supper was served by mothers from Mrs. Mead, Miss Wickoff and Mrs. Smith's third grade rooms.

Following the supper a short business session was presided over by the president, Mrs. Dale Moore. Mrs. Moore announced that the playground equipment and tape recorder recently purchased by the Association for the school has arrived. Reading of the minutes was by the secretary Edythe Manley and the Ways and Means report was by Mrs. Virginia Colton.

It was voted that the PTA sponsor the Bluebird Group in West Winston led by Mrs. John Markham and her assistant, Mrs. Ted Peterson.

The next fund raising project for the association will be the annual PTA penny supper, which is scheduled for February.

The room having the most parents in attendance was Mrs. Cory's fifth grade room.

Mrs. Margaret McCord appeared for volunteer chaplains for Wednesday and Friday evening skating parties at the Winston Community Club Building. Parents of attending children who are able to chaperone any of these evenings are urged to contact Mrs. Art Giese or Mrs. Carl Borgas.

Entertainment for the evening was a program arranged by School Dads with H. C. Hartly as program chairman. Arthur McGuire was master of ceremonies.

Appearing first on the program was Hollis Hill, dressed in full scottish military kilts, who played several numbers on the bagpipe.

A pantomime "Hasty Harry" was presented with the cast as follows: Hero, Charles McCord; heroine, Lew Shigley; Pat, Mr. Smith; captain, William Schell; nurse, Harry Brown; cameraman, Bill Weber; director, Cecil Callahan; stage hands, Fred Albertus and Howard Bird.

Third on the program was the role of a "Super Salesman" played by Bernard Bailey.

A skit with characters, King, Howard Bird; Queen, Bill Weber; Princess, Fred Albertus; hero, H. C. Hartly; villain, Ben Bailey; was humorously enacted.

Completing the hilarious program Bill Schell cleverly imitated his wife's preparation for an evening out.
