San Diego Scoured By Wind, Record Heat

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Hot, high wind pushed the thermometer to a record 88 in San Diego Sunday in a gusty blow that toppled scores of trees — one on the home of tennis Queen Maureen Connolly. There was also a light earthquake. The tree damaged the roof of the Connolly home. Miss Connolly was away playing tennis. Other objects tossed about by the gusts included television antennae, street signs, a chicken house and an automobile that was rolled from its parking place over a 30-foot embankment. City fireguards estimated 10,000 people at beaches. Los Angeles also had a record 83-degree temperature.

French Lose Laotian Key Town, Win Elsewhere

HANOI, Indochina (AP)—The French conceded Monday the loss of Attapeu, a key Laotian village in central Indochina, but claimed a successful fight far to the north in the Red River delta, with 111 of the Vietnamese enemy killed and 72 captured. A communique said the French withdrew from Attapeu three days ago, and a battalion of the Communist-led Vietnamese occupied the town. It is in Laos, 280 miles north of Saigon. The town has long been a garrison for French and Laotian troops because it is at an important crossroads 70 miles east of Pakse, a big French base on the Mekong River.

circles. He said he would grant Hartfield's request to be relieved of Cory's defense. Judge East asked Hartfield, however, to post Cory's appeal of the conviction. Judgment for retrial on the ex-convict charge within 10 days. With the preliminaries out of the way, Judge East turned to the matter at hand, a district attorney's information charging Cory with being a habitual criminal. Judge East explained that if the charge is found true, Cory would be sentenced to a minimum of 10 years to a maximum of his natural life. He told Cory he could (1) admit he was the person named in the indictment, (2) refuse to answer, or (3) deny he was the person named. The judge and defendant stared at each other for perhaps 30 seconds before Cory waved his hand signifying he would not answer the charge. The judge then turned to Dist. Atty. Robert Stults and told him to set a trial date when it will be determined whether Cory is the person who has been convicted of four or more felonies. A jury will be impaneled to determine. Cory asked that an attorney for his defense be appointed from outside Douglas County. Judge East granted the request, but no attorney has yet been named. The district attorney's information lists seven felony crimes allegedly committed in Cory's 34 years. They are:

1. May 3, 1918 — Burglary. Sentenced in Los Angeles to five years with probation.
 2. Oct. 19, 1928 — Burglary. Sentenced to from 0 to 14 years in San Diego, Calif.
 3. March 8, 1941 — Break and entry of a postoffice. Sentenced to three years in the federal penitentiary in Oklahoma.
 4. March 8, 1943 — Break and entry of a postoffice. Sentenced to two years in a federal penitentiary, in Ft. Worth, Texas.
 5. April 18, 1944 — Attempting escape from the Kansas reformatory. Sentenced to 1 year in the federal prison.
 6. Aug. 24, 1949 — Attempted burglary in Utah. Sentenced to from 6 months to 10 years in the Utah State Prison.
- The November conviction of Cory on the charge of being an ex-convict in possession of a concealable weapon led to a four-year sentence. The jury will also determine whether the concealable weapon charge was committed within five years from the previous conviction.

Rule Of Democrats Hit By Congressman Scott

of living has raised five percent in the year of Republican administration. Future Benefits Forecast It was a shiny picture and the future was just as glowing. This is what Scott said the United States could expect in the next year of his administration. 1. A total 26 tax revisions will be passed to benefit taxpayers. He noted changes in medical withholding, expansions in head-of-household withholding, eliminations of some double taxes and increase of dependent children earnings to $1,000. 2. The budget will be sliced by $1.3 billion dollars, making a total of 18 1/2 billions in budget reduction in two years. 3. Administrative personnel will be reduced by 33,000 to 35,000, mostly through attrition or re-organization. 4. A government "pre-insurance" program will be instituted to "shore up and expand" Blue Cross and Blue Shield medical coverages. 5. A more flexible farm program will be instituted. It will probably be a compromise between that offered by the president and that offered by members of the Agriculture committee. 6. The Bricker amendment will not be adopted in its present form. A compromise will be adopted to "preserve the supremacy of the Constitution." He said the amendment will be formed in such a manner as "not to controvert" domestic areas except through decisions by Congress. 7. Hawaii will be admitted to statehood in this session of Congress. It is doubtful if the Senate will allow Alaskan statehood this session. In conclusion, Scott called the Republican administration "good." He said "it doesn't spend as much money and it 'has a heart and a head'."

As if in answer to Democrat Richard L. Neuberger who appeared in Roseburg the night before, Scott said it is an administration that will "not allow plundering of our national resources either through bureaucrats or private enterprise." Douglas County's Lincoln Day dinner at the Hotel Umpqua Saturday night drew such state Republican names as State Treasurer Sig Unander and State GOP Central Committee Chairman Ed Boehnke, but Gov. Paul Patterson was unable to attend. He sent a telegram stating he had a previous engagement. Also missing from the ranks were Secretary of State Earl T. Newberry, National Committeeman Jess Card and National Committeewoman Olive Cornett. All expressed their regrets that they could not attend. Leading the list of county Re-

Drought Drying Up Areas Of Two States

nonessential use has been banned in some areas. Prayers For Rain Voiced In Paola, Kan., pastors are offering prayers for rain at Sunday services. Daily prayers for rain are being said at Ursuline College. Meantime, the town's water rate has doubled, and officials say another hike is inevitable if Paola—as is likely—will be forced to import water soon from nearby Kansas City. Big 1,000-gallon water trucks are hauling supplies to farm lands and thirsty cities throughout northern and central Missouri and eastern Kansas. Some 20 hauling companies are engaged in the water trade in Jefferson City, Mo., alone. The state capital lies on the Missouri River, so its own supply is ample, and water is being shipped out in a 60-mile radius. Kansas City likewise has no problem, being on the Missouri River, but south of the city, in the La Cygne, Kan., area, many smaller towns have only six-week reserves left. Springfield, Mo., has taken to cloud seeding to produce rain, without results to date. At Edina, Mo., the Army recently had to step in and build an emergency pipeline to a nearby lake to replenish the community's reservoir—which since then has run perilously low once more. Lamar, Mo., is precariously getting by on a well formerly supplying an ice plant. Jobless Apply For Relief About 4,000 jobless farm workers, made destitute by drought conditions in this southeast Missouri area, registered today to receive food and clothing under an emergency relief program. The drought brought heavy damage to farm crops, throwing hundreds of farm workers out of jobs. The same weather conditions—ideal for harvesting—produced a record cotton yield of about 428,000 bales, speeded the harvest and cut jobs short. The Kansas City Star said the increased use of cotton picking machinery also contributed to the workers' plight. Truck shipments of food and clothing were expected to arrive today. These include a load of 12,000 cans of surplus beef from a state sanatorium and surplus government cheese, butter, and dried milk from St. Louis.

Once Spectacular Fiction Writer Maxwell Bodenheim, Third Wife Found Slain In Squalid Quarters

NEW YORK (AP)—Maxwell Bodenheim, bad boy writer of the 1920s, and a woman believed to have been his third wife were found slain Sunday. A 25-year-old "fast talker" was sought by police today for questioning.

The 63-year-old Bodenheim was discovered with the woman in a cheap furnished room where drink and poverty had sent him after a spectacular and controversial career in the 1920s and 1930s as a writer of poetry and harsh fiction. Police today issued a 13-state broadcast for Harold Weinberg, alias Joseph Greenburg, and warned that he "may be armed."

TB Board To Meet—The Douglas County TB and Health Association board of directors will hold a meeting tonight at 8:00 p.m. in room 201, Pacific Building. The guest speaker will be Dr. J. A. Colbrunn. The board will consider the purchase of a permanent X-ray machine for use in Douglas County. Bodenheim, born in Hermanville, Miss., had no formal education. He became a bitter critic of American civilization. Lies About Red Link His peak was in the 1920s. By 1935 he was broke and on relief; at Bellevue Hospital he was diagnosed as an acute alcoholic. Later he joined the federal writers project of the WPA but was suspended in 1940 charged with having falsely sworn that he was not a member of the Communist party. Acquaintances of Bodenheim and the Fagan woman said she became his third wife recently. Police said a copy of a job application found in her effects stated she graduated from the University of Michigan had been a reporter for the Washington D. C. Daily News from 1940 to 1941; a comparison shopper for Crowley-Milner, Detroit in 1941 and 1942, and a researcher for Newsweek magazine from 1943 through 1945.
