YOUTH BANQUET TAKES PLACE IN SUTHERLIN

Youth Week observed all over the nation from Feb. 1 to Feb. 7, was ushered in at the Sutherlin Christian Church with a youth banquet Saturday evening.

The tables were attractively decorated in the valentine motif. Before being seated at the tables, the group sang the Doxology and the blessing was asked by Douglas Sanders.

Roy Bullock, toastmaster, made the welcoming speech, and provided a good deal of entertainment with his jokes.

Bert and Laurie Watson, played a saxophone and trumpet duet and a piano solo was rendered by Sandra Atkins, after which the toastmaster called "Songs for Fun," which consisted of group singing of some catchy choruses.

The speaker of the evening was Harry Chapin, minister of West Side Christian Church of Roseburg, who gave a very inspirational talk.

Those present were: Harry Chapin, Roy Bullock, Gordon Epps, youth advisor, Ada Aheene, and Velma Bratton, Bible School teachers of youth classes, and Leslie Francesca, Marilyn and Charlene Wright, Laurie Watson, Darlene Chandler, Douglas Sanders, Jean and Joan Woollett, Vonda Priest, Joan Fennell, Bert and Allen Watson, Joyce and JoAnne Sanders, Connie Woollett, Janis Epps, Sandra Atkins, Nancy Farm- and three guests from Roseburg, Jane Kingfield, Co. C. E. president; Carolyn Chapin and Neva Pfaff.

Vonda Priest and JoAnne Fennell were in charge of table decorations and Mrs. Eldon Sanders was chairman in charge of the banquet. Her helpers were Mrs. Jesse Riddleberger, Mrs. Gordon Epps, Mrs. Harry West and Mrs. Ross Woollett.

ANNUAL SPEECH CONTEST TO BE HELD TUESDAY EVENING
The annual speech contest of held Tuesday, Feb. 9, at a 7 o'clock dinner in the civic room Roseburg. Toastmasters will be of the Hotel Umpqua with Robert Harvie as chairman. The outstanding club speaker will be selected and the winner will go to Eugene, March 6, to compete for the outstanding speaker of the area, Roseburg, Eugene and Springfield.

Members of the Roseburg, Winston-Dillard Toastmasters Clubs and guests are invited. Vince Derig will be toastmaster for the evening.

Last year's club winner, John M. Fleck, went on to win the bi-area and area contests and competed in the District No. 7 contest, which included the outstanding speakers from Northern California, Oregon and Southern Washington.

MONDAY MEETING HELD BY ASSOCIATION

Blue Bird leaders, Camp Fire guardians and Horizon Club advisors met Tuesday in the Presbyterian Church parlor from 1 to 3 p.m. Mrs. George Miller, president, was in charge. The minutes were read by the secretary, Mrs. Ted Prussia. These newly elected officers and the vice president, Mrs. Helen Niday, were presented with hand-made corsages by the outgoing president, Mrs. Fred Schermer, at the January meeting. A discussion of this year's National Camp Fire Birthday Project, "Let's Be Different Together," brought out the many possibilities for the girls to learn of the food, clothing and housing of people from other nations.

A coordinator was chosen to represent each school's Camp Fire Groups and plan for a city-wide "Five Continents Folk Festival." This will be only one of the many activities which can be enjoyed during the year's project. The coordinators are: Riverside, Mrs. Bob Sherman; St. Joseph, Mrs. John Russell; Senior High, Mrs. Robert Gladwill; Junior High, Mrs. Fred Schermer; Fullerton, Mrs. R. H. Darby; Myrtle Creek, Mrs. Dale Sall; Winston-Dillard, Mrs. O. D. McAllister; Benson, Mrs. Franklin Piper; Rose, Mrs. Jack Chapman; Glide, Mrs. Merton Weaver; Green, Mrs. Carl Weikum.

The Camp Fire groups will make cookies with a "foreign accent" for the March visit of the Bloodmobile. Each leader is being asked to bring foreign cookie recipes and two or three cookies, of that nature, to the next meeting of the association. Other committee heads appointed by Mrs. Miller were: hospitality, Mrs. Bob Sherman; program, Mrs. John Russell; publicity, Mrs. Robert Cartwright.

The meetings of the Leaders Association are held the first Tuesday of each month and everyone is urged to attend these meetings for the benefit of the groups and the leaders.

Refreshments were served to the association by Mrs. Prussia and Mrs. Cartwright, at which time the Blue Bird leaders were "treated" to a valentine making demonstration by Mrs. Helen Niday.

CAMP FIRE GROUP HAS SEVERAL MEETINGS

The Chickweemay Camp Fire Girls have been playing, planning and doing during the past month. At the meeting of Jan. 17, the girls finished 200 menu covers for the Vet's Hospital for Valentine's Day and concluding the evening with charades of famous people and a song fest of popular songs.

Jan. 24, the shoeless girls, their guardians and sponsor, Dr. Robert Cartwright, made an appearance at the Freshman Polio-Benefit Dance. It was an enjoyable affair and a worthwhile project for the freshmen.

Feb. 2 brought forth plans for a full year of enjoyment on the 1954 Birthday project. Countries from many parts of the world will be represented by the Chickweemays. Books on costumes, food and maps were a source of "travel" for the girls and a comparison of these various countries and their customs was delightful.

A letter from the Tawanka Camp Fire Girls of Corvallis was read by the secretary, which stated that they too were starting on the "Let's Be Different Together" project.

A symbol which would stand for the goals of the group as seen by each girl, was designed and accepted as a group symbol. This will be used to decorate any group article or craft work that is deemed necessary.

Refreshments were made and served by Connie Meyer to: Diana Cartwright, Geraldine Flink, Joyce Nesvold, Judy Hanson, Sharon Pepple, Sharon Longton, and the guardians, Mrs. Emil Flink and Mrs. Robert Cartwright.
