BOX SOCIAL IS SUCCESSFUL EVENT

The box social held Friday evening at the Calapooia clubhouse by the Calapooia Ladies Club was highly successful and a nice sum was received for the sale of the boxes.

After a two hour entertainment of moving pictures by Mr. Davis of Roseburg, the boxes were auctioned off by Archie Moore. Several boxes were re-sold and these were placed with several children's boxes for sale and purchased by others of the small fry, and this amount was added to the proceeds of the evening.

Following the sale of the boxes a social hour was enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Leon Millott and Mr. and Mrs. Koser, who were unable to attend gave $5.00 each, which brought the evening's receipts to $59.00, to be donated to the March of Dimes fund.

EAGLES AUXILIARY TO MEET TUESDAY

ORDER OF FORESTERS HAS LARGE MEETING

Evergreen Grange Hall Saturday night was the scene of the Independent order of Foresters social gathering, which was attended by 150 people. After a short business meeting, in which Chief Deputy Melba Blakely gave a talk on her recent visit to Southern California where the Order's home for old people, "Forest Haven" and T. B. Clinic is located. Also Chief Deputy Blakely revealed that when the Order first started in Roseburg, Sept. 28, there were 20 members and has now grown to 400. The goal set for 1954 is 5000 members.

Guest speakers of the evening were Bill Goff of Eugene branch order of Independent order of Foresters, Mrs. Helen Hawk, Glendale, a past chief ranger in the Los Angeles Court and Mrs. Lou Cunningham, a member of Golden Gate Court, San Francisco.

After the business meeting the group enjoyed a chili supper and dancing. There was also a film shown on Forester benefits and pictures of the Home in Lopez Canyon, Calif. There will be another social March 27, for members and invited guests. Those attending from Camas Valley were: Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Pope and guests; Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Thovson and daughter, Marilyn and guest Pamela Arnold; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. William Cunningham and guest, Mrs. Maude Johnson.

CAMAS VALLEY GARDEN CLUB MEETING IS HELD

The Camas Valley Garden Club met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Bud Martindale. The president, Mrs. Brunette Wilson, called the meeting to order and the business was transacted in short order and the balance of the program was turned over to Mrs. Ruth Wiley.

Mrs. Wiley gave a very interesting and informative talk on pruning of shrubs. Mrs. Wilson gave a demonstration on how to plant seeds in flats, especially very fine seeds, and the transplanting of same at the right time. The women voted in three members, Mrs. Copeland, Mrs. Helen Nelson and Mrs. Lou Cunningham.

It was decided to meet Wednesday, Feb. 10, at 10 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Edith Booth to tie a quilt, that is now completed and will be turned over to the "Fire Box" which the Garden Club is sponsoring. Each lady is asked to bring a covered dish and her own table service, for potluck luncheon.

The floral arrangements were of pussy willows, Oregon grape and rosebuds.

Days Creek School Addition Bids Opened

Bids for construction of the new Days Creek School addition were opened Thursday night with Steve Ferche submitting the lowest bid, $60,900.

While formal acceptance was not given by the board, it was expected the approval would be granted in a few days. Minor adjustments in the contract were being considered by the Days Creek School Board and the planning committee.

Other bidders were Barnhart Const. Co., $76,545; W. M. Pemberton, $67,952; Shannon Const., $71,621; Todd Const., $69,577; and Wiley Const. Co., $74,430. All bidders were present.
