

BETROTHAL TOLD — Mr. and Mrs. Carl Nickens, 1320 Ball St., Roseburg announce the engagement of their daughter, Marilyn Anne, to Thomas Garrett Zinn Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Zinn Sr., of Klamath Falls. Both the bride-elect and Mr. Zinn are students at Southern Oregon College of Education. The latter will complete his degree in agriculture at Oregon State College next year. No date has been set for the wedding. (Picture by Charles Kash).

FOUR GENERATIONS, all four of whom were born in Douglas County, are pictured above. Mrs. D. P. McKay, for many years correspondent from Wilbur for the News-Review, is holding her great-grandson, Harold Delwin McKay III, who is three months old. Mrs. McKay is 85-years-old. At the right is Mrs. McKay's son, Harold Delwin McKay Sr., of Roseburg, and at the left is his son, Harold Delwin McKay Jr., one of the owners of KRXL radio station here. Mr. McKay Sr., is in the drug business in Roseburg. (Picture by Clark's Studio).

JOAN PAGE BAKER, above, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hoover, Roseburg, was graduated from San Francisco Dental School Friday, Feb. 5. She is spending the week with her parents in Roseburg, before accepting a position in Santa Cruz. Joan was graduated from Roseburg High School, in 1953. She made her home here for seven years. She was married Dec. 26 in Santa Cruz and her husband, AL/3 Loren Baker, is in the Navy stationed aboard the USS Onslow, now in Korean waters. He will receive his discharge next August.
