children, Joy May Swales, Gene Wilson and Linda Swales. Mrs. Augustus, mother of H. R. Augustus of Roseburg, has also been visiting her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Augustus, in Olympia, Wash. (Picture by Clark's Studio).

C. V. MONTGOMERY, Ed Wyatt and L.W. Riley are flipping pancakes for the Shove Tuesday pancake supper to be sponsored by the men of St. George's Episcopal Church March 2 at the Parish House. The men of the parish will do the cooking, serving and dish washing. Pancakes will be served from 5:30 to 7 p.m. This is the traditional last celebration before beginning of Lent, March 3, Ash Wednesday. Montgomery reports he will guarantee this year's supper to be the best to date. (Picture by Clark's Studio).

STELLAR CLUB MEETS AT SUTHERLIN

Daffodils and acacia formed pretty bouquets for the Stellar Club meeting Monday evening, when Mrs. Edna Campbell, Mrs. Veda Holopeter and Miss Alta Jean Campbell were gracious hostesses at their home on East First Avenue.

The evening was spent in making afghan blocks. Plans were made for the dinner the club will serve at the Eastern Star district meeting, which will be held at the Masonic Temple at Oakland, Friday, March 19.

After the meeting refreshments were served by the hostesses Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Holopeter and Miss Campbell, to Mesdames: Doris Steinbach, Fern Flory, Betty Stearns, Ruth Bridges, Ruth Bunch, Dorothy Austin, Naomi Riggs, Gertrude Hebard, Irma Cornish, Nadine Stearns, Meryl Wahl, Juanita Holgate, Grace Wood, Olga Bleiman and Mary Barker.

BENEFIT CARD PARTY HELD AT MANNING HOME

The George Washington motif was carried out in a pretty manner by Mr. and Mrs. Alva Manning Saturday evening, when they entertained a group of friends at a benefit party at their home in Drivers Valley.

Pinochle was in play during the evening with Mr. Hempenious winning high score for the men and Mrs. Francis, high for ladies; low scores went to Brittain Slack and Dorothy Austin, with the sweeps prize being won by Chester Williams.

At midnight a delicious supper was served by the host and hostess Mr. and Mrs. Manning to: Mr. and Mrs. Chester Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Hempenious, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Austin and Peggy Jean; Mr. and Mrs. Brittain Slack, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Flory and Sandra; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Norton, Mr. Flory Sr., Mrs. Maggie Francis and Myra Weber.

KEYSTONE CIRCLE MEETS AT HORTON HOME

The Keystone Circle of the First Methodist Church met at the home of Mrs. Lester Horton with Mrs. Phil Todd conducting the business meeting.

It was decided that each member should donate one dollar to the Circle fund, instead of having a money raising project this year.

The March meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. George L. Singleton, 204 S. Chadwick St.

A dessert-supper was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Horton and Mrs. Todd to the following:

Mrs. Ivan Crum, L. M. Gabel, George Singleton, William C. Woods, Earl Wiley, C. M. Tilton, Albert Jackson, Laurence Rand, E. O. Rand, Clyde Chittwood, W. O. Bencke, Mrs. Myrtle Burr and Mrs. Hilda Peterson.

SOUTH DOUGLAS BPW CLUB MEETS AT DRAEGER HOME

The South Douglas BPW Club held a social meeting at the home of Mrs. Ed Draeger in Myrtle Creek Feb. 23. A short program was presented by Miss Gladys Williams. Mrs. Edna Helgeson gave a brief talk on the purpose of the BPW. Miss Mary Stephens presented the pro and cons of the controversial subject of letting 18 year olds vote. Miss Mabel Williams and Mrs. Helen Henderson reviewed the problems of inflationary food prices.

Mrs. Draeger then served light refreshments to the nineteen members and guests present. The next meeting will be held March 23.

SEWING CLUB MEETS AT HOME OF MRS. COX

The Dixonville Afternoon Sewing Club met at Mrs. Vance Cox's home on the Dixonville road last Thursday afternoon. Those present were: Mrs. Lynn Beckley, Mrs. Jack Melton, Mrs. Vera Hatfield, Aileen Hatfield, Mrs. Kathleen Weber, Mrs. Lydia Owens, Mrs. Louise Walker and Mrs. Dale Hatfield. The afternoon was spent in sewing, mending and visiting. Refreshments were served.

PINK AND BLUE SHOWER HELD AT MYRTLE CREEK

Mrs. Harold Benninger of Myrtle Creek was honored at a pink and blue shower at the home of Mrs. Kenny Lawrence Tuesday. Hostesses for the affair were Mrs. Ed Walters, Mrs. Kenny Lawrence and Mrs. Ren Sims.

The evening was spent in playing games after which the honored guest opened her many shower gifts. The Berean Class of First Christian Church presented Mrs. Benninger with a large bassinet and the other gifts were placed in the basket. A large appropriately decorated cake was served to:

Mrs. Elmer Leighton, Mrs. Marion Howell, Mrs. James Hayes, Mrs. Floyd Campbell Jr., and Mrs. Campbell's mother, Mrs. Steele, who is visiting from Washington; Mrs. John Payne, Mrs. Loman Baker, Mrs. Tom McCormack, Mrs. Al Rutter, Mrs. Cecelia Sellers, Mrs. Bess Sellers, Mrs. Ed Thomson, Mrs. Marion Kuster, Mrs. Pauline Thompson, Mrs. Jim Smith, Mrs. Bob Holts, Mrs. Glen Butler, Mrs. Don Martin, Mrs. Eric Lewis, Mrs. Gene Weick and Mrs. Larry Baird.

FIRE BELLES MEET AT ELLISON HOME

The "Fire Belles" met at the home of Mrs. Luther Ellison with Mrs. Phil Todd as co-hostess.

A short business meeting was held, followed by a surprise pink and blue shower party for Mrs. Phil Todd.

Refreshments were served to the following members: Mrs. Ernie Gardner, Mrs. Antone Shukle, Mrs. Don Starmer, Mrs. Jes Nelson, Mrs. William Mills, Mrs. George Kirby, Mrs. Jack Tol, Mrs. Floyd Epperly, Mrs. Leo Friend and the hostesses.

LEON MEDFORD OBSERVES SEVENTH BIRTHDAY

Mrs. James Medford entertained Saturday afternoon in honor of the seventh birthday of her son, Leon. Games were enjoyed by Leon and his friends after which refreshments were served at a valentine decorated table. Guests present were: Susan McAllister, Carolyn Lindbergh, Donnis Worsley, Jerry Martinez, Sherri Grady and Sherri Medford.

At the close of the afternoon Leon opened his many gifts.

WOMEN OF THE MOOSE MEET ON MONDAY

Forty members were present at the meeting of the Women of the Moose Monday. The business meeting was conducted by senior regent Virginia Finch, Mae Hoppe, Pat Alsbaugh, Beth Tucker and Bette Pack.

A discussion was held on sponsoring a nurse this year for nurses training.

Friday, Feb. 26, Women of the Moose will have a potluck dinner for members and their friends with Beth Tucker in charge.

Saturday, Feb. 27, Beth Tucker will sell smorgasbord plates at the Moose Hall at the Forty Niners Night with members and friends invited.

Refreshments were served by members of the ritual committee. Hostesses were: Beth Tucker, Irene Routledge, Nora Lewis and Margaret Walton.

The next meeting will be formal initiation and Ruth Bell, Moosehaven chairman, will present the chapter night program, Monday, Mar. 8.
