MURDOCK HOME SCENE OF WCTU MEETING

The meeting of the Womans Christian Temperance Union was held recently at the home of Mrs. Naomi Murdock, with Mrs. R. D. Knigge in charge of the business meeting.

Group singing was enjoyed and Mrs. Sadie Currier led the devotions.

Mrs. C. E. Britton presented the program. Mrs. Currier, state director of the spiritual department, Mary Southwick, state speech department chairman, and Mrs. Knigge, state institute department director, gave reports on the mid year meeting last week in Portland. They reported the new slogan for the year is 80 or more in 54.

Roseburg received honorable mention because 25 new members have been added since September. Mrs. Marsh reported that Mr. Schenley, superintendent of the Children's Farm Home, has returned because of ill health.

A ground observer corps meeting will be held soon, and volunteers are asked to attend.

Mrs. D. M. Geddes was nominated to be state mother. The next meeting place will be announced later.

Mrs. Murdock served lovely refreshments.
