

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT—Mrs. Nellie Haley of Calgary, Alberta, announces the engagement of her youngest daughter, Lucy, to Ivan Sheffel. The wedding will take place March 16 in Calgary. The bride-elect is employed in the offices of the Canadian Pacific Railroad in Calgary. Mr. Sheffel is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Sheffel of Sutherlin. Until recently, he was employed by Roseburg Motor Company and at the present time is working for an automobile firm in Pendleton.

WISCONSIN VISITORS HERE—Mr. and Mrs. Donald Carlson and son, Larry, 4, and daughter, Elaine, 2, of Madison, Wisc., are in Roseburg visiting Mrs. Carlson's parents.

WILL MARRY IN JUNE—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brauning, Sutherlin, announce the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Lou, to William Van Keuren, son of Mrs. Grace Fickes, Sutherlin. The bride-elect was graduated from Sutherlin High School in 1951 and is employed by Martin Brothers Box Company in Oakland, Mr. Van Keuren is also employed by Martin Brothers Box Company. The wedding has been planned for June 20.

Public Invited To Enjoy Piano Recital

Ruth Trued will present a group of piano students in recital at the First Christian Church, Douglas and Kane Streets, Sunday, March 7, at 3:30 p.m. Beginners and intermediate students, ranging in age from 7 to 12, will give a varied program consisting of solos, duets and trios, representing composers of both classical and modern periods.

The public is cordially invited to hear the following students perform:

Paul Peters, Tommy Oden, Leona Powell, Gary Tyler, Wayne Tyler, James Lamka, Joyce Hatfield, Jeanne Hatfield, Galen Kleinfeldt, Patricia Patton, Anna Christine Linder, Jeanne Woodruff, Dee Ann Simms, Dawna Hutchins, Jan Durham, Russell Dondoro, Nancy

Kalivoda, Judith Patton, Sandra McCoy, Floyd Wilson Jr., Judy Ann Seitz, Charlene Miller, Ginger Darby, Annabelle O'Neal, Norman Carrell, Sharon Ratliff, Nancy Grass, Carolyn Oden, Eileen Webb, Ernest Force, Kathryn Palmer, Carolyn Bibler, Ann Hatterscheid, Carolyn Wassom and Barbara Gadway.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY BOARD HAS MEETING

The executive board of the Umpqua Association's Missionary Society met Tuesday at the lovely home of Mrs. Jack West on Riverside Drive, for an all-day session.

Mrs. Harry Yates, association president, of Coos Bay, was in charge of the meeting. Reports from the women's societies of the eight Baptist Churches were given. They include churches from Bandon, Coos Bay, Reedsport, Cottage Grove, Eugene, Springfield, Willagillespie and Roseburg.

Plans for the spring rally were completed. It will be held at Cottage Grove, Tuesday, April 20. Everyone in the church is invited.

A lovely noon luncheon was served by the Association members from Roseburg: Mrs. Ruth Smith, Mrs. Bobbie Hughes, Mrs. J. L. Ritchie, Mrs. R. D. Knigge and the hostess, Mrs. Jack West, assisted by Mrs. R. E. Crawford and Mrs. Raymond Schaefer.

Mrs. Joe V. Perrault Complimented At Party

Mrs. G. N. Siefarth entertained at a charming pink and blue shower party and 12:30 o'clock luncheon at her beautiful home in Hu-Crest Tuesday in compliment to Mrs. Joe V. Perrault.

A miniature buggy, filled with daffodils and green candles, graced the table, while flowering quince and camellias formed the room decorations.

Lovely gifts were presented to

Mrs. Perrault. Invited by Mrs. Siefarth to honor Mrs. Perrault were: Mrs. Sidney Leikon, Mrs. Stearns, Mrs. M. L. Hallmark, Mrs. James Hughes, Mrs. R. D. Bridges, Mrs. Roy W. Sedell, Mrs. Walter Brydges, Mrs. C. E. Knight and Mrs. Robert Davis.

High scores for the afternoon's contract bridge play were won by Mrs. Hughes and Mrs. Sedell with Mrs. Knight winning the traveling prize.

Charming Shower Party Given Mrs. Estabrook

The most charming party of this year at Glide was the pink and blue shower given recently at the Grange Hall to compliment Mrs. Estabrook.

The lace-covered gift table under pink and blue crepe paper streamers, was centered with gaily decorated bassinet and stork standing by and completely covered with gifts.

After the guest of honor had opened her gifts, which were in charge of Miss Magness, the afternoon was spent in visiting. Mrs. Welch and Mrs. McCartney at the serving table, cut the large cake decorated with pink and blue booties and served refreshments to Mrs. Helen Roberts, Mrs. Cecil Berryhill, Mrs. Floyd Hickman, Mrs. Tom Amos, Mrs. Elbert Cellers, Mrs. Carl Messing, Mrs. Vern Shrum, Mrs. George Casebeer, Mrs. Glenn Snider, Mrs. Seth Mathews, Mrs. Esther Hurlburt, Mrs. B. J. Polley, Mrs. Bob Casebeer Jr., Mrs. Sadie Von Clasen, Mrs. Ellis Watson, Mrs. Wm. McCue, Mrs. Leroy Handy, Mrs. Neil Talcott, Mrs. Evelyn Roglitz, Mrs. Cecil Harris, and Mrs. Stan Morburg.

Invited guests sending gifts but unable to attend were: Mrs. Jim Watson, Mrs. C. E. Vleck, Miss Vera Steadman, Mrs. Oscar Steadman, Mrs. Bob Casebeer Sr., Mrs. Dick Smith, Mrs. Fred Asam, Mrs. Catherine Kelley, Mrs. Tim O'Connell, Mrs. Claude Talcott, Mrs. Watson Talcott, Alice Milford, Mrs. G. E. Magness, Mrs. Pauline Dumont, Mrs. Zella Taylor, Mrs. Walt Strahen, Mrs. Howard Mosley and Mrs. Susan Har-kieroad.

Mrs. R. A. Feenstra Honored On Birthday

Early spring flowers and pussy-willows made a pretty setting in the social room of the Dillard Methodist church for the surprise birthday party for Mrs. R. A. Feenstra Friday. Friends and honored guest gathered at twelve o'clock for the potluck dinner. A bouquet of Sol D'Orr and daffodils flanked by tall white tapers in crystal holders, and individual potted violets gave the lace-covered table a gay party effect. The large decorated birthday cake was presented by Mrs. Carol Hercher.

Arriving during the dinner hour, Mrs. Donna Fisher, attired in a colorfully Gypsy costume, told fortunes of the guests from their tea leaves.

Mrs. Mercy Buell, who was co-hostess with Mrs. Dorothy Emert, skit with Mrs. Jo Leshner, Mrs. Myrtle McAlpine and Mrs. Tillie Goodwin acting as contestants. Mrs. Feenstra was then seated on the queen's throne and crowned and adorned in a royal purple robe. She was presented with appropriate articles for her Easter wardrobe. To complete the entertainment for the lovely party Mrs. Emily Fosback sang and dedicated a solo to the honored guest, accompanied by Mrs. Beatrice Post.

BELLVIEW CLUB MEETS AT DESSERT

Bellview Club met Wednesday at the home of Betty Zuck with Beth Boyer co-hostess at a one o'clock luncheon. The St. Patrick motif was carried out in the decorations. Members having birthdays in the last three months were guests of honor.

Ethel Roselund, president, was in charge of the meeting. Reports were given by Virginia Krueger, secretary. The club motto was given by Ruth Parker.

Visiting, games and sewing were enjoyed during the social hour with Virginia Krueger winning the prize.

Guests were: Blanche Boyer, Vanna Jacks and Mary Forward. Members present were: Belle Huff, Emma Beckley, Irene Walker, Ruth Parker, Ethel Roselund, Virginia Krueger, Lizzie Gardner, Alyce Utne, Olive Walker, Alma Lovelace, Lora Gester and the two hostesses.

The next meeting will be April 7 at 1 p.m. at the home of Virginia Krueger with Emma Beckley as co-hostess. Members are asked to bring plants for exchange.

PAST MATRONS CLUB MEETS AT WHIPPLE HOME

The Past Matrons Club of Roseburg Chapter No. 8, O.E.S. met at the home of Mrs. R. L. Whipple Monday evening for a delicious dessert-supper. Assisting hostesses were Mrs. V. J. Micelli, Mrs. Sturgell Walker and Miss Margaret Page. The serving tables and rooms were bright with many daffodils from the V. J. Micelli gardens. The business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Earl Wiley, and many interesting and informative topics were discussed.

RCORD MEETING HELD AT BENSON PTA MONDAY NIGHT

Benson school's best attended PTA meeting of the year was held Monday evening, March 1. The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Alfred Meyer, president. Other officers participating were Shirley Stark, Charlotte Cowin, and Pauline Greenfield.

Mr. Jack Lucas, director of special education, explained the Hazel Dixon Memorial fund. Benson PTA voted to give $50. to this cause.

New officers of the PTA elected to serve for the coming year are: Mrs. Alfred Meyer, president; Mrs. Kelly Bennett, vice president; Mrs. Stanley Stevens, secretary; Mrs. Kenneth Moore, treasurer; and Mrs. Leland Pittam, historian.

It was announced that a Boy Scout Troop has been organized and committeemen named. A committee of twelve volunteers, with Mr. Kelly Bennett as chairman, are to attend the next city council meeting in an attempt to obtain more help from city police officers in patrolling the North Umpqua Highway school crossing during the busiest traffic periods.

M. C. Deller, school superintendent, invited written suggestions of any items suggested for the school budget. These would be read at the next budget meeting to be held Friday, March 5 at 8 p.m. at the Junior High School.

The group voted to send the new president and vice president to the state PTA convention in Salem the latter part of April. Announcement was made of the annual music festival to be held in the Benson gym on Monday, March 8. The first, second and third grade of Benson and Green schools will have their portion of the program at 10 a.m. The fourth, fifth and sixth grades of both schools will have their program at 1 p.m. the same day. The theme of the program will be "Music, a Universal Language." There will be singing and dancing numbers put on by all members of both schools at this time. All parents and friends are invited to attend. The annual April Follies is scheduled in the school gym at 8 p.m. on Friday, April 2.

Mrs. Meyer announced that the bloodmobile will be at the Elks Temple March 18 and 19. All who can, were urged to contribute blood at this time.

Mrs. Wetherall's room retained the traveling planter for the best PTA attendance. Mistress of Ceremonies for the evening's program was Pauline Greenfield. The first grade presented a rhythm band number and sang "Here We Come" and the "Blue Danube Waltz." The second grade played and sang "Skip to My Lou," "Indians, Their Ways and Habits" was presented by the third grade. The fourth grade as a group presented some acrobatic stunts. Space Patrol was explained by Jimmy O'Brien. Karen Mortenson and Lois Meyer sang "I don't want to play in your yard."

The fifth grade called and danced the square dance, "Oh, Johnnie." Mary Keel, from the sixth grade, did a tap dance and a hula number. Donna Frisk sang and played on the guitar, "My Blue Heaven" and "Early Bird."

The St. Patrick's Day motif was carried out through the evening and the tables in the lunch room were attractively decorated with daffodils and shamrocks.

Second grade mothers served refreshments following the meeting and baby sitting was done through the courtesy of Mrs. Charles Neal's Wakiyakwa Camp Fire Group.

SANDRA LEE ELLIS CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Miss Sandra Lee Ellis, daughter of Mrs. Robert B. Hallcraft, celebrated her 12th birthday Saturday at a theatre party.

Those enjoying the occasion with her were: Penney Cooney, Nancy Cyrus, Susan Chitwood and Nancy Hedine.

Following the movie, the girls returned to the Hallcraft home to enjoy delicious refreshments served by Sandra's grandmother, Mrs. Walter Clark.

PINK AND BLUE SHOWER GIVEN FOR MRS. ENRICH

A pink and blue shower party was given in honor of Mrs. Marlene Enrich at the home of Mrs. Patsy Weekley Wednesday, with Mrs. Margaret Mann and Miss Carol Firman as hostesses. The traditional colors were carried out in the decorations with daffodils and iris being used in bouquets about the rooms.

Appropriate games were played with prizes being awarded to Mrs. Bove, Mrs. Rasmussen, Mrs. Magill and Velda Moe.

The many lovely gifts were opened and refreshments were served to: Patsy Moore, Edna (Pat) Rose, Judy Rose, Vonnice Hibber, Jackie Rasmussen, Mary Bove, Patsy Weekley, Carol May, Lola Rose, Cynthia Magill, Adea Thomas, Veda Moe, Dorothy Degner, Ruth Gorman, Elizabeth Wert and Jean Jepson, by the hostesses, Mrs. Mann and Miss Firman.

Those sending gifts but unable to attend were: Dona Fae Rose, Emma Mann, Lola Rehwalt, and Marjory Denley.

Gladys Strong Presents Pupils In Piano Recital

MRS. KENNETH THOMSON HONORED AT SHOWER PARTY

A pink and blue shower party was held for Mrs. Kenneth Thomson last Tuesday at the home of Mrs. John P. Malone with Mrs. William Snyder as co-hostess.

Appropriate games were enjoyed, followed by the opening of the lovely gifts by the guest of honor.

Refreshments were served and dainty favors presented to: Mrs. Kenneth Thomson, Mrs. Carlos Page, Mrs. Earl Oldfield Jr., Mrs. Fred Oldfield, Edna Cole, Mrs. Don Trimm, Mrs. Mac Pyrie, Mrs. Herbert Helms, Miss Margaret Page, Mrs. Dale Bolsinger and the two hostesses, Mrs. Malone and Mrs. Snyder.

A gift was sent by Mrs. Lester Shultz, who was unable to attend.

A very interesting piano recital was given last Tuesday evening by pupils of Miss Gladys Strong. It was the third in a series of winter recitals. Beginners, a number of whom played for the first time, and also more advanced students were presented. They played very well.

The recital was given at Miss Strong's residence studio on South Main Street. A social hour was enjoyed at the close of the program and refreshments were served.

The following played: Gregory Smith, Terry Marsh, Gerry Marsh, Barbara Marsh, Nancy Harria, Ruth Ann Thomason, Elizabeth Pramann, Juanita Jurgens, Sharlene West, Ruth West, Wanda Willhoit, Patsy Willhoit and Beulah Willhoit.

WILL BE BRIDE—Mr. and Mrs. Felix Raddatz of Garden Valley announce the engagement of their daughter, Woodena Joy, to Lawrence E. Matson, son of Mrs. Marie Matson, Billings, Mont. The bride-elect was graduated in 1952 from Idaho Falls High School, where she was an active member of the Pep Club, Dance Club and choir. She is secretary for the law firm of St. Clair and St. Clair in Idaho Falls. Mr. Matson was graduated from Billings High School and served with the U. S. Army in Japan for a year and half. Upon his return, he attended Montana State College for three years and at present is employed as a draftsman for the Atomic Energy Commission's Reactor Testing Station at Arco, Idaho. The wedding will take place April 10 in the Bethlehem Lutheran Church in Billings. The couple will reside in Idaho Falls until the fall term of college, when they will move to Bozeman, Mont., where Mr. Matson will enter his senior year in Architectural Engineering.

Troylings

TYLED BY Seymour Troy

FOR THOSE ACCUSTOMED TO PAYING MORE

seymour troy
says

"STRAW'S
THE THING"

It's not only how lovely it looks... but how nice it feels... and straw designed by Seymour Troy is the very last word in fashion. The next to last word is Troylings value... very exceptional, too. Find out for yourself. Now. Here.

Arbuckle's

Your BUSTER BROWN Shoe Store