

Meet The Powers Behind
The VA Hospital Heads

Society

LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER

Sat. Mar. 13, 1954—The News-Review, Roseburg, Ore. 5

PICTURED ABOVE are Mrs. A. S. Anderson, whose husband is chief of the physical medicine and rehabilitation service; Mrs. Horace G. Miller, wife of the chief of the continued treatment service, and Mrs. Robert W. Cartwright, whose husband is chief of clinical psychology service. Mrs. Anderson's home state is Kansas; Mrs. Miller is from Minnesota, and Mrs. Cartwright is a native Oregonian. (Picture by Clark's Studio).

PHOTOGRAPHED BELOW are Mrs. Floyd Powell, wife of the assistant manager; Mrs. Henry Lebacken, whose husband is finance officer; Mrs. Kenneth Kissell, wife of the supply officer, and Mrs. Robert P. Kidder, whose husband is chief of special services. Unable to be present when the pictures were taken was Mrs. Harold King, wife of the engineer officer. Home state of Mrs. Powell is Iowa; Mrs. Lebacken is from Idaho; Mrs. Kissell is an Oregonian and Mrs. Kidder is from Washington. (Picture by Clark's Studio).

POSING FOR THE ABOVE picture are Mrs. Ted H. Wirak, whose husband is personnel officer; Mrs. W. F. Amiot, wife of the Chief of dental services; Mrs. Walter Barker, whose husband is chief of social services, and Mrs. Milton (Mickey) Hard, wife of the executive assistant, physical medicine and rehabilitation service. Mrs. Wirak's home state is Pennsylvania; Mrs. Amiot is from Louisiana; Mrs. Barker is from Iowa and Mrs. Hard is from California. (Picture by Clark's Studio).

FIRST LADY at the Veterans Hospital Post is Mrs. George L. Wadsworth, at left, who is the very charming wife of the manager of the Roseburg VA Post. Mrs. Wadsworth is a native of Connecticut. Dr. and Mrs. Wadsworth and their 12-year-old son, John, reside in the manager's residence at the Post. (Picture by Clark's Studio).

IN THE PICTURE BELOW are Mrs. Samuel Beanstock, wife of the chief of professional services; Mrs. Abbott P. Simmons, whose husband is in charge of the continued service ward, and Mrs. Burhl B. Gilpin Jr., whose husband is chief of medical service. Mrs. Beanstock's home state is New York; Mrs. Simmons is from Vienna and Mrs. Gilpin is from Iowa. (Picture by Clark's Studio).

of we dihl-ng.
nee