

DILLARD CAMP FIRE GIRLS MEET AT LEADERS HOME

New officers were elected when the Wetomachick Camp Fire Girls met Wednesday afternoon at the home of the leader, Mrs. O. D. McAllister, in Dillard. Susan Trobaugh was elected president; Diane Trobaugh, vice president; Mary Hull, secretary; and Marilyn Hull, treasurer. Due to the stormy weather and the snow on the ground the girls held their meeting before the cozy fireplace in the spacious living room of the McAllister home. Mrs. McAllister presented the girls with some honor beads they had earned recently. Plans were discussed for making large cookies on March 18-19 to be taken to the Bloodmobile for a "pickup" for the donors.

Mrs. McAllister and her group of Camp Fire girls attended the Dillard Methodist Church in observance of the National "Go to Church Sunday."

Those attending the interesting meeting of the Wetomachick Camp Fire girls were Roberta Hammeser, Mary Hull, Lois Williams, Marilyn Hull, Patty Davidson, Barbara Bailey, Susan Trobaugh, Diane Trobaugh and Mrs. McAllister.

MYRTLE CREEK DAUGHTERS HAVE VISITORS AT MEETING

Mrs. Jean Yeo, grand guardian of the State of Oregon, International Order of Job's Daughters, made her official visit to Bethel 18 Wednesday evening. Other grand officers present were Mrs. Edna Catlow, grand secretary, and past grand guardian; Roy Colburn, grand inner guard, and Mrs. Cora Young, past grand guardian, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Cornish, guardian and associate guardian of Bethel 42, Oakland, and the five line officers from their Bethel, were other visitors present.

Following a potluck dinner, the initiation ceremony was held for Betty Blackett, Dixie Sall and Janice Steinhaver.

Twenty-five dollars was reported as the proceeds of a recent food sale; further plans for attending grand session at Salem in April were discussed; social activities were suggested, and the regular go-to-church Sunday was arranged. Leneve Smith, honored queen, presided.

At the next regular meeting March 24, Masons, Eastern Stars and members of the Shrine and their wives will be invited guests.

PANEL DISCUSSION FEATURED AT MELROSE PTA

A panel discussion on the topic "Are Our Students Learning to Read?" was an interesting feature of the Melrose PTA meeting Thursday evening. Moderator of the discussion was Melrose School principal Walter Jarvie. Participants in the discussion were Roy Crain, principal of Riverside School; Harold Mayer, remedial reading instructor in the Roseburg schools; and Ray Doerner and Mrs. Worth Davis, parents. State requirements and modern techniques in teaching students to read were explained.

At the business meeting conducted by Mrs. Ray Doerner, president, committees were appointed to provide a sandbox for the school; to get permission to cut brush obstructing vision at the entrance to the school driveway; and to investigate and assist in locating houses for prospective teachers.

A committee to nominate officers for the coming year was elected.

The parent attendance count was won by the sixth grade.

The tentative date for the talent show was set for April 30.

Mrs. Worth Davis, ways and means chairman, reported the auction held at the meeting brought thirty dollars into the treasury.

Cake and coffee were served at the close of the meeting by sixth grade mothers.

ST. PATRICK DAY LUNCHEON HELD BY RIVERSDALE LADIES

Addie Schneider and Lella Spray were hostesses at a beautifully arranged potluck luncheon at 12:30 o'clock Friday at the grange hall. Decorations were carried out in the St. Patrick's motif, with green shamrocks on white paper doilies, and napkins to match at each place setting. Violets centered each luncheon table, with the serving table centered with flowering plum and quince in a crystal bowl on white ruffled doily. Candles were hand dipped modeled green and white with carved lilies. Those attending were: Ethel Welker, Ethel Youngren, Marylou Newhouse, Anita Stark, Ethel Fuller, Essie Olson, Bess Johnson, Anna Trozelle, Nelda Norris, Eva Marks, Florence Norris, Dessie Tipton, Hilda Walters, Bertha Bayliss, Lucy Osterman and the hostesses.

Ethel Welker, chairman, conducted the business meeting with acting secretary pro-tem, Anna Trozelle, in the absence of Millie Beckwith. New by-laws were presented and read by Anita Stark. Standing committees reported, and plans for items of hand work for the bazaar were discussed. June 1 will be the judging for the guest towel contest, so those interested please contact the H.E.C. chairman Ethel Welker.

The hostesses presented an interesting game for the program. Throughout the hall were green shamrocks, and the one figging the most won a green scarf. Hilda Walters was the winner. Each shamrock was numbered and the lucky number was drawn by Marvin Schneider and was won by Ethel Youngren who received a loaf of nut bread. The next H.E. meeting will be at the Ethel Welker home with Dessie Tipton as co-hostess.
