HAPPY CIRCLE CLUB TO MEET AT CAMAS VALLEY

The Happy Circle Sewing Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Loretta Copeland on Tuesday, March 23, for a potluck luncheon. The last meeting which was to be held at the home of Mrs. Lou Cunningham's was held instead at the Pryor home, due to the absence of Mrs. Cunningham from the Valley. All members are urged to attend this next meeting as there will be some very interesting business to attend to.

WEYANNAH CAMP FIRE GIRLS HAVE DOLL DISPLAY IN WINDOW

As a part of the 1954 Birthday project "Let's Be Different Together" the Weyannah Camp Fire Girls have learned about the clothing of different countries. The doll display in Miller's window shows some of the things they have learned.

The dolls were carved by the girls from pieces of broom handle; the faces painted on and then dressed in the authentic costumes of the country they represent. The arms are pipe cleaners with hands carved from balsam wood. The girls met at the home of Mrs. Don Reed, assistant leader, Wednesday evening to finish the project.

On "Go to Church Sunday" the girls attended the Christian Church with Mrs. Prussia, their leader, and Mrs. Reed. They were welcomed by the minister, the Rev. Kleinfeld.

In February the group met at the Prussia home and enjoyed games from foreign countries. Weyannah girls are Janet Reed, Jean Prussia, Cindy White, Bonnie Sween, Ruth Thomason, Shannon Rutter, Phyllis Pittman, Kathy Vang and Carolyn Wasson.

This week the girls took a sack luncheon to the Labor Temple and filled envelopes with Easter seals. They are also making cookies for the bloodmobile.

There are hundreds of high school students here from all parts of the in the week.
