RIVERSDALE GRANGE TO ASSIST IN SKY WATCH

Visiting grangers attending the Riversdale Grange last Friday evening were master, Virgil Woodruff, and chaplain, Nettie Woodruff of Melrose Grange, and Mrs. Birdie Barker of South Deer Creek Grange. Roll call of officers, found treasurer and cures, Homer and Catherine Pattison absent, and acting pro-tem were Ted and Maxine Mehlhoff respectively.

Agriculture chairman W. D. Love, urged everyone using sprays of any kind to use it with care and caution, and to especially keep it out of the reach of children.

Business agent, Kenneth Kissell, had several articles for sale, and funds received were presented to the chaplain for the flower fund. Legislative chairman, Norman Wicks, reminded those who had changed address or failed to register to vote, to do so before the primary election.

The HEC chairman Ethel Welker had a display table of a hobby collection of bone china tea cups. Display was arranged and shown by Ida Burr, who has been collecting cups for several years, and has some lovely ones from other countries.

For a new community service project, the Riversdale Grange voted to aid in the "Sky Watch" one day each month. Committee to arrange the schedule is Ethel Youngren, Vivian Harth and Esie Olson.

St. Patrick was the highlight of the lectures program, and green neckties and green hair ribbons were requested to be worn by all attending. Those not wearing green in the proper place were fined and this created lots of fun. Musical numbers pertaining to the theme were enjoyed and a pantomime skit entitled, "The Mollardrama" was read by Bess Johnson, and acted out by the following members: Nelda Norris, Maxine Mehlhoff, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Wicks, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Walter, Leila Spray, Rhea Hartley, Lucy Osterman, Addie Schneider, Kathrine Young and Oro Welker.

A monologue by Minnie Cox, entitled "Mrs. O'Tool at the Telephone," and a poem by Mrs. W. H. Carter concluded the lecture program.

April 2 meeting the program theme will be "America," and feature of the evening will be colored movies, to be shown by the Phil Harth on their trip to Florida.

Refreshment committee for then will be Mr. and Mrs. Darley Ware, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Daniels, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Verrell and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Anderson.

TILLER 4-H CLUB REORGANIZED AT RECENT MEETING

The Eager Etchers 4-H Club of Tiller met at the Anton Erlebach home recently to reorganize into two clubs instead of one.

The boys club, whose leader is Anton Erlebach, elected the following officers: president, Alan Hall; vice president, George Williams; secretary, Phillip James; song and yell leader, Leon Newman; news reporter, George Biss Jr.

Girls club officers elected were: president, Michael Byrd; vice president, Phyllis Higgins; secretary, Frances Stone; song leader, Marilyn Howell; yell leader, Bernice Biss.

Following the business meeting all the work of the club was exhibited by the girls leader, Mrs. Erlebach. Mrs. Byrd gave a helpful demonstration.

The club members and their parents enjoyed a social time of games. Pictures were taken of the group and refreshments served.

An all day meeting was planned to be held at the home of Alan Hall, April 17.

WADIWICINCA GROUP HAVE SWEDISH MEETING

Wadiwicinca Camp Fire group of Green had an interesting and instructive afternoon Friday.

Mary Lou and Susan Engdahl entertained the group at a desert luncheon. Swedish foods prepared by the girls was served. The rooms were filled with genuine Swedish art work, carvings, dolls and books. The table decorations were in the Swedish motif. The girls and their mother, Mrs. Warren Engdahl told of many interesting customs of the country. Christine Engdahl, 14 years old, was dressed in Swedish costume, including apron, embroidered cap, kerchief and a dress of hand woven materials.

After dessert the girls were taken to Roseburg where they enjoyed the Camp Fire window exhibits and also visited the Camp Fire office. Other places which they visited were: the court house, fire station, library and radio station KRRR. The girls were very graciously welcomed by the personnel of these places. They also visited "Susie" at the pet shop.

Besides the Scandinavian countries, the girls plan on studying foods, homes and customs of Germany, Holland, England, Scotland, Spain and Italy.

Members attending the excursion meeting were: Susan and Mary Lou Engdahl, Joanne Thomas, Mary Lee Elliott, Judy Miner, Virginia Jones, Mildred Hendrix, Myrtle McLaren, Janet Welkum, Verla Bateman, Lorene McCrith.

PARENTS INVITED TO OPEN HOUSE AT JOSEPH LANE SCHOOL

Parents of seventh and eighth grade students in Roseburg are urged to attend the open house of the new Joseph Lane school which will be held Monday, March 29, at 8:00 p.m. in the new auditorium. The open house will take the place of the monthly meeting of the Junior High PTA.

An assembly will be held in the auditorium with a program and short PTA discussion period preceding the visitation of the classrooms. R. R. Brand, principal of Joseph Lane, states that sometime in April an open house will be held for the general public. These two occasions will provide an opportunity for everyone to see and visit the new school.
