MANY PLANS DISCUSSED AT MOOSE WOMEN'S MEETING MONDAY NIGHT

Committee reports on publicity, social service, Moosehaven and membership were read by the various chairmen at the Moose Women's Lodge meeting Monday night, which was conducted by Marjorie Rhinehart, senior regent.

The following announcements were made: an Academy of Friendship Session will be held in Astoria May 2 by Women of the Moose; those receiving the friendship degree were: Erma Buck, Esther Bentley, Fern Craig, Irene Doty, Winnifred Steele, Betty Dorman, Freda Tallon, Rose Schmieden, Lucille Crow, Marjorie Rhinehart and Lois Perry from Roseburg; the men of the lodge will paint the hall when the color is chosen by the women; Academy of Friendship will have a dance Saturday, April 10 at the lodge hall; a baked food sale will be held April 10 at the City Market.

Members were asked to make shirts for the boys at the City Market. Irene Routledge and Hazel Jamieson are making Easter decorations to be sent to Portland. Members wishing to be on the bowling or rifle team are asked to sign up.

Irene Pasch visited Lenor Horn in Portland last week.

Refreshments were served by the Moosehaven committee, Ruth Bell, Freda Tallon and Rose Schmieden.

Next meeting will be formal initiation and Doris McWilliams, homemaking chairman will present the chapter night program on Monday April 12.

SCHOLARSHIP TEA WILL BE EVENT OF FRIDAY

East Douglas HEU will sponsor a scholarship tea and plant sale at the home of Mrs. Adrian Standley of Glendale on Friday from 2 to 4 p.m.

MRS. RICHARD GRANT IS SPEAKER AT LOOKINGGLASS PTA

The Lookingglass PTA featured Mrs. Richard Grant as guest speaker at their March meeting. Mrs. Grant outlined the objectives of the Red Cross Bloodmobile program. Other numbers on the program included a speech contest by sixth grade students in which the contestants composed their poems and were judged on the merits of their composition as well as on the recitation. Mary Ann Pillion won the girls' award and Ray Peters the boys'. A musical cake walk in which the contestants paid an entrance fee netted the organization about eight dollars for the costume fund to be used in the forthcoming carnival.

Candidates for the carnival queen have been chosen with a representative from each room with voting to be based on a penny vote. Each candidate has had the privilege of choosing her crown prince and the group includes Joann Barth and Michael Watkins, Patty O'Toole and Gregory Mazon, Nancy Grass and Marvin Patterson, Mary Ann Pillion and Douglas Matthews. The carnival is scheduled for April 24.

NORTH DOUGLAS GRANGE PRESENTS GIFTS TO MRS. OPAL NELSON

The North Douglas Grange held a regular meeting Friday evening with Master Alvin Allen in charge. During the lecturer's hour the H. E. chairman, Mabel Sowles presented a skit. A wheelbarrow was wheeled in by Gene Meacham with Jimmy Nelson riding inside dressed as a baby and brought over to the lecturer, Opal Nelson who was presented with a pink and blue shower.

Everyone who brought baby pictures of themselves had them numbered and everyone guessed on who was who. Dorothy Sands guessed all of the pictures correctly. It was also decided for each family to give fifty cents to buy records for the teen-agers dance club. Refreshments were sold before and after the meeting.

CAMAS VALLEY CLUB ENTERTAINED AT THURSDAY HOME

DRAIN STUDY CLUB TO PRESENT ROSEBURG SYMPHONY ON SUNDAY

The members of the Drain Study Club feel fortunate to be able to bring to Drain the Roseburg Symphony Orchestra, organized three years ago under the direction of Wendell Johnson, who is still the conductor, Sunday, April 4, at 2:30 p.m. at the Drain High School Auditorium. A small admission price will be made.

The program consists of classical numbers, popular tunes and even the Little German Band at intermission. The members of the club have planned this program of beautiful music to please the community.

Mr. Johnson is also choral instructor at Roseburg Senior High School, Tom Hall, Senior High Band director, plays first flute. He has had several years in orchestral work. It is impossible to comment on all 40 of the outstanding musicians in the orchestra. Some of the Drain residents know William Jelski, who plays first oboe, and who was formerly a member of the Portland Symphony. His wife, whose parental name is Leiken, is a former resident of Drain. Jeanne Thomas, oboe, who played with the Gustavus Symphonie Band, Minnesota, and the University of Oregon Band and Orchestra, is well-known in Elkton and Drain.

Members of the Yoncalla Study Club will attend the concert in a body as guests of the Drain Study Club.
