

Roseburg Lumber Co. Files New Trial Motion

Attorneys for Roseburg Lumber Co. have filed a motion for a new trial in a case decided last week when a jury awarded $42,750 general and $7,000 special damages to Paul Cree.

The suit grew out of a logging accident in which Cree was injured.

The motion is based on the following allegations: The plaintiff was guilty of contributory negligence, which the jury did not take into consideration. An error occurred when the court failed to give certain instructions to the jury. The court failed to grant defendant motions for a directed verdict and involuntary non-suit, and, at one point, wrongly sustained an objection by the plaintiff's attorney.

Kirk Douglas Missed Good American Food Most Abroad

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—What does an American miss most after a year and a half in Europe? "Some good, simple food," replies Kirk Douglas. "In France, where I spent much of my time, you can get the most elegant food in the world. But after a while you yearn for a well-prepared, plain dish such as you can only get in the United States. Pot roast. Corned beef and cabbage. A hamburger and milk shake. How I could have used something like that!"

Douglas frankly admits that he went abroad to profit from the tax exemption for Americans who lived abroad 18 months. He didn't come back with as much profit as he had hoped for. Congress stepped in and changed the law. But he does think that the jaunt was worthwhile in other respects.

The actor made three pictures abroad: "The Juggler," "Act of Love" and "Ulysses." He toured throughout Israel, Italy, France, Switzerland, Germany and England. He met royalty and the heads of state. He feels that the whole experience caused him to grow as an actor and as an individual.

But most of all, it threw a new light on his native land. "You miss the things you have always taken for granted in this country," he observed. "For instance, when you're in Europe for a while, you almost forget that the bathroom is a well established institution."

When you come back here, you get a different impression just from seeing the faces of the people. Americans seem so much healthier, cleaner and happier. I guess it's because of our standard of living."

He added that a trip abroad made him again appreciate the American success story, of which his own life is a notable example. He was born Isur Danielovitch in Amsterdam, N.Y. His parents, who also had six daughters had emigrated from Russia.

"If they had stayed there, I would have been a peasant," he reflected. "I realized in Europe that the average person has little chance of rising above the status of his parents. But in America, anyone can do anything. Any boy can become president of the United States."

Magistrate Sees Strip Tease Dance

NEW YORK (AP)—The magistrate was not from Missouri but he still had to be shown.

So blonde strip tease dancer Mrs. Dorothy Barker, accused of an indecent performance at a Queens night club, did her act in court—which whittled her wearing apparel down to black panties and girded-on sequins.

It happened in Long Island City Court Queens.

Said Magistrate J. Irwin Shapiro: "I'm just a hick from the rock-aways (Long Island beach communities) and sometimes in the summer I stand on the beach and see girls in Bikini bathing suits."

As for the 22-year-old Mrs. Barker Shapiro said her act was "distasteful and disgusting" but "completely in bad taste" but neither obscene nor indecent within the meaning of the law. "The court reluctantly dismisses the case," he added.
