

Time For Spring House Cleaning

WEARING IDENTICAL "Mother-Daughter" dresses, Mrs. Clifford Babbitt and her daughter, Jennifer, age 7, upper left, prepare to polish silver holloware and shine glasses and china for their glass wall shelves.

Society

LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER

Sat. Apr. 10, 1954—The News-Review, Roseburg, Ore. 5

IT IS THAT TIME OF THE YEAR again, when housewives take their names apart and shine and polish windows and furniture to make them bright and new to match the loveliness of the spring season. For today's feature society page, the daughters of the women selected to pose for pictures, were enthusiastic helpers. Special thanks goes to Mrs. Clifford Babbitt, in whose home the pictures were taken.

All Pictures On This Page By "Chris"
Of Fredrickson's Photo Lab

THE TABLE TOP and other furniture will fairly glow, when Mrs. Frank B. Woodruff and her two daughters, Susan, 7, left, and Mary Jo, 9, right, (upper right picture) get through with their shining.

HARDWOOD FLOORS take on a clean and shining appearance after Mrs. Byron Woodruff and daughter, Jeannie, (center) get through vacuuming and waxing. Jeannie will be 9 years-old May 7.

LET'S START by cleaning the fireplace says Mrs. Alfred S. Tyson, wife of the rector of St. George's Episcopal Church, to her 8-year-old daughter, Charlotte Louise, (lower left) who grabs a small broom to help with the spring housecleaning.

WINDOWS will sparkle when Mrs. Ted Williams and her 9-year-old daughter, Kirsty, (lower right) get through with their spring cleaning. Because so many try to spell Kirsty's name as Kristy, she explained she was thinking of calling herself "Kay." We urged her to keep her good Scotch name.

