

The Easter Parade

Society

LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER
Sat. Apr. 17, 1954 The News-Review, Roseburg, Ore. 5

All Pictures On This Page By
"Chris"
Of Fredrickson's Photo Lab

Easter Fashions By Courtesy
Of Miller's Department Store

THE NEWS-REVIEW news department gets in the Easter act with Deborah Pugh, 1½-year-old daughter of News-staff Writer and Mrs. Merle Pugh, and Gary Castillo, 1½-year-old son of City Editor and Mrs. George Castillo, posing with the Easter bunny. Debbie is wearing a bright red silk Easter frock and Gary is wearing long blue pants and a tweed coat.

Art Work By
Dan Mindolovich
News-Review Staff Artist

With special thanks to Rod Nevue manager, and Mrs. Crawford, in charge of fashions at Miller's

NEWLY OUTFITTED for Easter is the Spencer Yates family, pictured above in the living room of their beautiful home on Hawthorne Drive overlooking Roseburg. Attorney and Mrs. Yates are shown with their three children, John, 2-years-old; Diane, 7, and Jeffery, 9.

TO REPRESENT the teen-age set, Kennette Kirk, a sophomore at RHS and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kirk, and Dick Stevenson, a senior and son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Stevenson, don Easter outfits and are photographed for today's feature page. Kennette is wearing a white dress fashioned from one of the newer linen weave materials and trimmed with a black yoke studded with rhinestones.

MR. AND MRS. DONALD GERRETSEN, lower center, are shown wearing navy blue Easter ensembles. Mrs. Gerretsen, the former Susan Motschenbacher, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Motschenbacher of this city. She is wearing a navy blue, flecked with white suit with navy and white accessories. Mr. Gerretsen is associated in business with his father, W. H. Gerretsen, and brother, Gordon Gerretsen, in Gerretsen Building Supply Co.

MR. AND MRS. P. T. BUBAR, lower right, wear light grey ensembles. Mrs. Bubar's suit is trimmed in bright red and with it she wears a bright red hat and a corsage of matching camellias. The Bubars owned a jewelry store in Roseburg for many years before retiring. They will observe their golden wedding anniversary next year and friends are already making plans to help them celebrate.

