Oregon's First Lady To Be Here On Tuesday

Oregon's first lady, Mrs. Paul Patterson, will discuss the personal side of such a position as well as the board of education of Oregon when she appears as guest speaker at a banquet of American Association of University Women members and guests Tuesday, April 20, at 6:30 p.m. in the Civic Room of the Umpqua Hotel.

Mrs. Patterson, a native Oregonian, is the daughter of Simon Benson whose family were early pioneers and settlers in the state. She attended the University of Oregon where she majored in physical education and where she met her husband. After teaching for several years she married and settled in Hillsboro where they raised a family of three children.

The outstanding Oregon AAUW member has been invited to Roseburg by the status of women committee of the local organization.

This committee of which Mrs. Samuel Warg is local chairman is found in all branches of AAUW and is based on the rights and privileges of modern woman.

All local members are urged to invite one outside guest to the banquet meeting. Those who were missed by the telephone committee may contact Mrs. Bruce Hetrick at 3-6304 with their reservations.

A short but important business meeting will follow the program. Election of officers for the next club year will be held.

MRS. MOWRY HOSTS DUV MEMBERS AT BIRTHDAY PARTY

Members of Florence Nightingale Tent 15 having birthdays in March and April were entertained at the home of Mrs. Mary Mowry, 546 Mill St., on Monday, April 12th.
