

ROSE PTA EXECUTIVE BOARD TO HOLD MEETING

Rose PTA executive board will meet at 1:30 p.m. Monday in the teachers conference room in the new building. Mrs. Ted Williams, president, has asked every officer and committee chairman to be present as this will be the last executive meeting of the year and

ASSOCIATED VOLUNTEERS PRESENT SUCCESSFUL DANCE AT VA HOSPITAL

The newly organized Associated Volunteers group held their first dance at the VA Hospital April 12.

Originality most aptly describes the theme cleverly combining both Easter and the "Hit Parade." The entire recreation building was decorated with rabbits holding record discs, musical notes, microphones, keyboards, manuscript paper and hit tunes.

The evening's highlight was the show of unique hats created by Ann Ricketts. Models for the creations were: Mary Lou Newhouse, Larry Hill, Marcy Baldridge, Pat Holt and Ann Ricketts. General chairman for the affair was Ann Storrs. Laura Iles was publicity chairman. Delicious refreshments were served by hostesses: Mrs. Stanley Kidder, Mrs. Shugart, Molly Maddox and Ann several important matters of business will be discussed.

SUTHERLIN CWF HAS MISSIONARY GUESTS

A very interesting meeting of the Christian Women's Fellowship of the Sutherlin Christian Church was held Thursday, when Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Bentley, missionaries recently returned from Venezuela, were guests.

Bentley spoke to the group after the potluck dinner and told many interesting facts about the country and the people. He told of village life and how each village was governed.

Mr. and Mrs. Bentley answered many questions asked by the women after his talk was finished.

The potluck dinner was a no-hostess affair.

Mrs. Cesa Wall and Mrs. Grace Fickes were presented with a decorated birthday cake.

A short devotional and business meeting was held. The Easter story according to St. John was read, and Grace Fickes gave the prayer.

Roll call was answered with scripture verses, reports of the secretary and treasurer were discussed and it was decided to hold another meeting this month, on April 29, making this just a work day.

Guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Bentley and Ray Bullock, pastor.

Music was furnished by Ham Hamilton and his orchestra.

WESTSIDE CWF MEETS AT PURDY HOME

The regular meeting of the CWF of Westside Christian Church met at the home of Doreen Purdy on Wednesday with Helen Chapin and Eva Wells as hostesses.

The meeting was called to order following a word of prayer by the president, Ida Allison. Reports from secretary and treasurer were read and approved.

The nomination committee made its report on the new officers which had been compiled for the group to vote upon. These names are: Betty Smith, president; Eva Wells, first vice president; Lucille Stelzenmueller, second vice president; Doreen Purdy, worship chairman; Yvonne Hunter, secretary; Gay Lathua, treasurer.

These candidates were unanimously elected by the group. These officers will be installed in June and will hold office for the coming fiscal year.

Study period, led by Lauretta Irwin, was a "Quiz on Missions and Missionaries," also a quiz on "Guess Who."

Doreen Purdy asked for donations for the high school class cook-out food sale which was held at Collett's Grocery.

Following adjournment, the hostesses served refreshments to fourteen members and one guest.

The May meeting will be in the form of a planning session. This means that the women will gather and plan out their work and study for the coming year, thus making it easier to carry out plans. Every woman of the church is most cordially invited to participate in this important event.

OAKLAND WOMEN PLAN BULB AND PLANT SALE

Associated Women of Oakland Community Presbyterian Church will hold a plant and bulb sale at the Sanitary Market Saturday.

JUNIOR HIGH PTA PLANS INTERESTING MEETING FOR MONDAY

The regular meeting of the Junior High PTA will be held at 8 p.m. in the Joseph Lane School Monday, April 26. This will be a meeting of members of the PTA parents of both seventh and eighth grade students.

An interesting program has been arranged by the physical education and music departments and will include folk dances and songs from various countries.

M. C. Deller will elaborate on the school budget for the coming year prior to the regular business meeting.

The Roseburg Adult Folk Dance Club members have arranged a program of some of their many dances and will demonstrate their ability to make any program one of enjoyment.

During the business meeting there will be an election of officers for next year's "Central" Junior High PTA. R. R. Brand states, that in the fall a separate organization of PTA will be established at the new Joseph Lane School.

Many other items of interest are to be discussed at the meeting and everyone is urged to attend.

FULLERTON PTA TO SPONSOR POTLUCK FOR FIRST GRADERS, FAMILIES

The last of a series of family potluck dinners, sponsored by Fullerton PTA during this school year, will be held Thursday, April 22 at 8 p.m. in the school lunchroom.

All first grade pupils, their families and teachers are invited. Each family is asked to bring a main dish and a salad, a vegetable or a dessert.

General chairman for the event is Mrs. J. A. Colbrunn. Committee heads include: preparation, Mrs. M. E. Engle; publicity and program, Mrs. Burl Gilpin; cleanup, Mrs. Leslie Miller.

Those serving on the hospitality committee are: Mrs. Gust Haft, Mrs. James Barker, Mrs. Henry Speilmann, Mrs. Francis Engle, Mrs. John Quibell, Mrs. Fred Schermer, Mrs. Walter Sandquist, Mrs. Clarence Honn, Mrs. Nathan Langenberg and Mrs. James Haney.

For further information call Mrs. Colbrunn at 3-4303.

HOBBY SHOW HELD AT OAKLAND PTA

A hobby show was featured at the Oakland PTA meeting Monday night at the new Lincoln gym. A large crowd attended and the hobby displays were most interesting.

Several songs were presented by Mrs. Cora Gustaf's class. Members of the square dance club gave a square dance number. Rope skipping and square dance numbers were given by Camp Fire and Blue Bird girls.

Election of officers was held with Floyd Ross being elected president; Delbert Spencer, vice-president; Mrs. K. Lytle, secretary; and Mrs. Esther Copeland, treasurer.

Ten dollars was given to both the Camp Fire group and Blue Birds for expenses.

RIDDLE HEU ELECTS OFFICERS

Election of officers for the coming year was held at the last meeting of the Riddle home extension unit with Mrs. Perry Jones named as chairman; Mrs. Milo Newcomb, vice-chairman and Mrs. Albert Nichols, secretary-treasurer. Plans for the Homemakers Festival to be held in Roseburg on April 29 were completed. The Riddle unit display will feature homemade yeast breads. For transportation, telephone Mrs. Earl Smith, retiring chairman.

The demonstration for the meeting, "One Dish Meals," was presented by Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Stanley Dewar.
