Drain Man Gets OEA Group Post

By EDITH DUNN

Anton A. Bryant, Drain, has been elected new president of the North Douglas County branch of the Oakland Educational Assn.

Also elected at the Oakland meeting last week were: Louis Price, Elkton, vice president; Arthur Beiderman, Drain, treasurer; and Rudy A. Holloway, Napa, secretary.

Robert Sabin, president of the county CEA, was featured speaker at the meeting. He gave the organization pointers in how to get the most out of the association.

Coffee and cookies were served by Oakland teachers after the meeting.

Attendees: Bruce Hemm, Oakland High School principal, and Mrs. Hemm attended the South Douglas County play contest at Riddle last Thursday night.

Some 151 people attended Sunday School at Oakland Presbyterian Church Easter. About 175 attended church services.

A district meeting of the Disabled American Veterans is scheduled Sunday, May 2, at 10 a. m. in the Veterans Memorial Building in Oakland. The Oakland DAV and auxiliary will meet at 7:30 p. m. for the regular meeting and election of officers.

Fire almost completely destroyed a house occupied by the Frank Long family over the weekend. Most of the furniture and clothing was saved as the Sutherland Fire Dept. aided in stopping the flames. The old house was owned by Bill Harms.

Move Would Prohibit Single Outlet Ownership

WASHINGTON — Congress has been asked to prohibit single ownership of newspapers and radio and television stations in cities with 100,000 or more population.

Sen. Johnson (D - Colo.) has introduced an amendment to a section of the Federal Communications Law.

He told a reporter the amendment would prevent monopolies in big cities by prohibiting the issuance of radio or television licenses to owners of newspapers.

New FBI Agent Takes Over Portland Office

PORTLAND — Joseph F. Santolana, 43, has taken over as special agent in charge of the Portland FBI office.

He succeeds George Burton who was transferred to Houston, Tex., to replace Santolana as special agent there.

Santolana joined the FBI in 1940. He has served at San Diego, New Haven, Conn., New York City, and Baltimore.

Airplane Motor Runs Down, Kills Student

EUGENE — Bobby Frank Davis, 23-year-old student at the Eugene Vocational School, was killed outright Monday when an airplane engine ran him down.

Another student, Peter S. Ware, 24, had started the engine motor which was mounted on a stand. The propeller pulled the motor and stand across the floor into Davis.

Ware and other students failed in their efforts to stop the engine. Usually the stands which hold the motors are anchored to the floor by chains, Melvin Gaskill, the instructor, said. This one was not.

BUDGET ELECTION

A special election is scheduled for the Yoncalla elementary district May 3, reports Correspondent Mrs. George Edes.

The election will decide a serial levy of $10,000 per year for five years which has been proposed. The money would be used to build and furnish additional school rooms for the district.
