 By HAZEL S. MARSH
 A third bar contest is scheduled this Sunday at the Methodist Church in Roseburg under the sponsorship of the Women's Christian Temperance Union.
 The speech contest, planned to show the evils of liquor, has been conducted for little more than a month. Representing Lookingglass in this contest will be: Patsy Elliott, Mary Ann Pillion and Ruby Ann Vance. In the absence of the pastor, the Rev. Ellsworth Tilton, the WCTU will also provide the evening service in addition to speech contest.
Start At Lookingglass
 The series of speech contests started in Lookingglass in March under the supervision of Mrs. Fred Southwick of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.
 On March 26 contests for the first bar were held after school at the home of Mrs. John Mathis where Marvin Patterson was adjudged winner with his selection, "If I Love My Country."

 The group then went to the home of Mrs. Albert Stingley where Jerry Finney was the winner with "Why Fish Get Caught." The last contest of the day was held at the home of Mrs. Finney where Rita Patterson won with her selection, "A Stomach Is Resentful."
 Early this month, a bronze medal contest was held at the home of Mrs. Schultz in which JoAnn Willis won with "Cocktails Are Like Bubbles." On April 7 two gold ribbon contests were held. Myrtle Pagan won the first with "How Habits Grow." Gregory Marion was second winner with "The Wise Men." On April 9 Georgia Schulze won the bronze medal in a contest held at the home of Mrs. Elton Grass. Her selection was "One Daisy."

On Sunday, April 11 Mrs. Southwick took a group of contestants from Lookingglass to Oakland to participate in a second bar contest which was held at the home of Mrs. George Spencer. The group included: Jerry Finney, Fay Oliviant, Marvin Patterson, Rita Patterson and Mary Ann Pillion. Mary Ann was adjudged winner with her selection "Little at a Time."
 On April 19 a second bar contest was held at the home of Mrs. Williams in which Ruby Ann Vance was the winner with her piece "One Daisy."
