

Portland Sports Center Crops Up

PORTLAND (AP) — Still another proposal for a civic sports center is up for consideration of city of Portland.

This one is for a new armory. By addition of some city money it could be expanded into a sports center, Maj. Gen. Thomas E. Riley, Oregon adjutant general, suggested Wednesday.

He said he expected about five million dollars to be made available for construction of a new armory here, 75 per cent of the funds coming from the federal government.

There have been a number of suggestions on how to get a sports center. One of them now is on the ballot, proposing an eight million dollar bond issue to finance it. Opponents of the bond measure are expected to use the armory proposal in arguments against the measure on the primary election ballot.

Of the five tie games played during 1953 in the American League, the Detroit Tigers were involved in four. Three times they tied the Philadelphia Athletics.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Down here in this horse loving country, where arguments on the outcome of the 80th Kentucky Derby often wage hot and heavy, they are betting there will be new faces in the winner's circle after the 20 or so 3-year-olds complete the mile and one-quarter journey late Saturday afternoon.

Eddie Arcaro, who rode in the derby for the first time in 1935 and finished fourth with Nellie Flag, is best acquainted with the almost hallowed ground. Old Bahama Nose, born only 100 miles from the scene of some of his greatest triumphs, has won five derbies. He'll be up Saturday on Goyamo, the 7-2 second choice from Royce G. Martin's Woodway Farm.

Three other jockeys — Bill Boland, Steve Brooks and Hank Moreno — have been in the circle once each. Boland was the second apprentice to win the big race when he rode Middleground in 1950. He will ride the Woodley Lane Farm's lanky Red Hannigan, an outsider, Saturday.

When the New York Athletic Club was first organized in 1868 it had 14 members. At the end of 1953 it had 8,191.

American League Unchanged

The St. Louis Cardinals are stealing their way back into the National League pennant picture.

Running bases with an abandon no Redbird team has shown since the last St. Louis flag winner in 1946. Manager Eddie Stanky's club has moved from dead last at the start to within a game of the top.

In 12 games the Cards have swiped 12 bases. They need only half a dozen more to equal their total for the entire 1953 season.

Winning Cardinal teams almost always have been running teams. One of the greatest was the 1931 aggregation. That was the year Frankie Frisch, the Fordham Flash, led the club with 28 steals, and Pepper Martin virtually stole the World Series away from the Philadelphia Athletics with his head-first belly slides.

The 1931 Cardinals stole 114 bases. The 1946 pennant winners, St. Louis Cardinals, stole 114 bases. The 1946 pennant winners, St. Louis Cardinals, stole 114 bases.

Stanky claims there is no radical difference between the base-running tactics of the 1934 outfit and last year's club. "We're just trying a few things and they're working," he said. "Nevertheless, the figures are doubly interesting in that 10 different players on the team have stolen bases, including one pitcher — Harry Haddix."

A steal figured directly in the result of yesterday's Cardinal game when the Redbirds edged Brooklyn 6-5 in 10 innings. Bonus baby Dick Schofield, running for Ray Jablonski, who had walked with two out, stole second on pitcher Jim Hughes and rode home on Steve Bilko's single, the second hit of the season for the massive first baseman.

The defeat, Brooklyn's second in a row in St. Louis, dumped the Dodgers into a third-place tie. They went West over the weekend in first place. The Cincinnati Redlegs, who replaced the Dodgers at the top on Tuesday, stayed there with an 8-4 verdict over the Pittsburgh Pirates, and the New York Giants moved into a tie with Brooklyn by nipping Milwaukee 3-1.

Rain and bad weather caused the other five scheduled games to be postponed. Spectacular relief pitching by little Jackie Collum preserved the Cincinnati victory after the Reds called for five runs in the third inning to gain a 7-4 lead. Collum stopped the Pirates on one hit through the last 3-1-3 innings after they had battered starter Fred Baczewski for nine in the first 2-2-3.

Ruben Gomez pitched six shut-out innings and drove in the first New York run at Milwaukee before leaving the game with a wrenched back after running the bases in the seventh. Al Dark doubled with the bases loaded, also in the seventh, for the other two New York runs. Gomez' injury was not considered serious.
