GIVING MAY BASKETS on May Day is an old-old custom of saying, "You Are My Friend." Today, hundreds of youngsters will take their handmade May baskets and deliver them to those they love.

JOHNNY ERICKSON, above left, says, "I Love You Mother," as he gives his first May basket to his mother, Mrs. Edwin Erickson. Johnny is 8-years-old and a student at Rose School.

A MAY BASKET for grandmother is given by Renald, 4, and Donase, 2½, children of Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Harris, to their maternal grandmother, Mrs. Hedwig Watzig, at her beautiful home on Hickory Street.

SYLVIA ANN GRANT, above right, leaves a May basket at the door of a friend and gets ready to hurry off to leave another basket for someone else. Sylvia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Grant, 425 Mill St., was five Sunday and celebrated at a party with 16 guests. The pink party dress she is wearing in the picture was one of her gifts.

BUSY MAKING MAY BASKETS, above, are Nancy Bosworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Bosworth; Leslee Sherman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sherman, and Collen Green, daughter of Attorney and Mrs. William Green. The three are first graders at Rose School and are all 6-years-old. They think it's more fun to fill the May baskets with candy than with flowers.

A SPECIAL MAY BASKET for Miss Phyllis Beckwith, pretty first grade teacher at Rose School, is given by Tommy Benz, first grader and son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Benz.

Orchids go this week to all the children of Miss Beckwith's room, who entertained the photographer and society editor by singing a song.
