MYRTLE CREEK OES HOSTS EIGHT CHAPTERS

Valentine Chapter 98 of the Eastern Star was host to eight visiting chapters at the Friendship Night held in Myrtle Creek April 26 at the IOOF Hall.

Worthy Matron and Patron, LaVerne and Vernon Williams welcomed the guests and members. Worthy matron then introduced the Jr. Past Worthy Matron of Oregon, Leila Wimberly, from Roseburg, who was escorted to the East by the officers.

Sixteen officers of Valentine Chapter presented a drill titled "Friendship's Knot," after which the visiting officers were presented with gifts.

Job's Daughters Bethel 18 of Myrtle Creek entertained the group with a style show representing fashions through the ages beginning with the year 1920.

The lodge hall was beautifully decorated with spring flowers and huge valentines. This theme was carried into the dining room with a selection of rainbow colored hearts and candles decorating the tables. Myrtle Creek members of other chapters served refreshments.

Chapters visiting the Friendship Night were: Mistletoe No. 114 of Riddle, Oregon 57 of Canyonville, Glendale 71 of Glendale, Oakland 91 of Oakland, Roseburg 8 of Roseburg, Reames 66 of Medford, Josephine 26 of Grants Pass and North Star of Drain. Approximately 120 guests and members were in attendance.

The OES social club of Myrtle Creek will meet at the home of Mrs. Martin Millsap, May 4, at 2 p.m.

Mrs. John Ulrich entertained the Inter Se Study Club Tuesday afternoon at her lovely home on the Umpqua. After a delicious luncheon, Mrs. Ulrich gave the afternoon's program, which she centered around Verdi's opera, "Aida." Her interesting talk was supplemented by the playing of a recording of highlights from the opera.

Members enjoying Mrs. Ulrich's hospitality were: Mrs. E. S. Hall, Mrs. C. M. Stark, Mrs. Earl Ulrich, Mrs. W. M. Campbell, Mrs. Alva Laws, Mrs. E. E. Lindell and Mrs. C. Harold Nichols.

Plans call for a "no hostess" luncheon at the Rose Hotel on May 11. Following the luncheon, the club will meet at the home of Mrs. W. M. Campbell, 435 South Main Street and Mrs. Paul Geddes will give the program.

MRS. BARBARA DAVIS INSPIRATION FOR PARTY

Mrs. Barbara Davis was pleasantly surprised at her home Wednesday when a few of her neighbors gathered at her home to help her celebrate her birthday.

Visiting was enjoyed after which delicious refreshments were served to Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Clara Shirley, Mrs. Mildred Moody, Mrs. Marian Hall and Mrs. Marge Buruse.

ROSEBURG BPW HOSTS SOUTH DOUGLAS MEMBERS

Roseburg Business and Professional Women met at the Woman's Club building Monday night with members of the South Douglas BPW as guests. A most impressive Emblem and Initiation ceremony was featured with Dr. Eleanor M. Stadler as chairman. Concluding the ceremony, presentation was made of an Emblem to the South Douglas BPW Club president, Isabelle Denman by Edyth Landis, local club president.

Elynor Massey, chairman of civil defense for BPW and Roseburg director of administration obtained very interesting films through the visual education dept. of Oregon State College. They were: "Emergency Action To Save Lives," "Survival Under Atomic Attack" and "Disaster On Main Street." In charge of showing films was Carmen Clark.

A large cake appropriately decorated with the BPW Emblem was served to 21 members and the following guests: Gladys Williams, Helen Henderson, Mabel Williams, Pearl Newcombe and Isabelle Denman.

Hostesses for the evening were Virginia Ashcraft, Cleo Moats, Edyth Gilmour, Gladys Foley and Dr. Eleanor Stadler.

BETA GAMMA GROUP ELECTS OFFICERS

Card Party To Be Given As Benefit Affair May 13

Members of Xi Omicron Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi made final plans for a public card party benefit last Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Frank Wickham. The party is scheduled for Thursday, May 13, 8 p.m. at the Roseburg Woman's Club. All proceeds will be used towards buying a specially constructed swing set for Camp Easter Sea. The swing sets are safety-constructed to protect the crippled children from accidents, yet give them the thrill of normal child play.

Mrs. Clarence DeCamp is general chairman of the affair, assisted by her ways and means committee and Mrs. Ernie Barker and Mrs. Robert Rhodes, publicity. Reservations can be made by phoning Mrs. DeCamp at 3-8175 and Mrs. Sidney Domenico at 3-3592, afternoon and evenings. Tickets may be purchased from any member of Xi Omicron. Two hundred tickets are available and it is hoped that the early pre-ticket sale will enable groups interested in card-playing to make plans to attend.

A cultural program, "Our Town" was presented by Mrs. Florence Powell who gave a most interesting and humorous resume of the founding of Roseburg, following its progress to its present standing. Many old-type photographs were passed for the members to identify. The task was difficult as the pictures were taken at the turn of the century.

Attending the meeting were: Mrs. Verduin Boucock, Mrs. Marcus Brown, Mrs. Eugene Krewson, Mrs. Jack Cummins, Mrs. Clarence DeCamp, Mrs. John Gardiner, Mrs. Florence Powell, Mrs. Ernest Prowell, a special guest who is guardian of the Blue Bird Group the chapter sponsors, and the hostesses, Mrs. Frank Wickham, Mrs. Ernie Barker and Mrs. Frank O'Brien.
