CHICKYWEEMAY GIRLS STUDY HAWAIIAN ISLANDS

"Aloha from Hawaii" was the theme for the Chickyweemay Camp Fire Girls meeting Tuesday evening. The greeting was issued by the hostess, Sharon Longton, who guided the group on the imaginary tour of the fabulous island. The doll, made by the hostess, was descriptive of the costume of the land, complete with leis and hibiscus blossoms.

An outline of Hawaii, its people, food and customs and a legend of the fire goddess, Pele, was presented to each member. A delightful Luau was prepared and served Hawaiian style, consisting of a ham-Hawaiian dish, coconut and papaya juice.

On returning to the club room, the group enjoyed an interesting period of learning proper procedure in business meetings from Connie Meyer. A discussion of how these rules could be applied to the group, followed. Miss Meyer also displayed a scrapbook which told of the resources of the Douglas County area and the influence of these resources on the community. Continuing along the business line, several types of sweaters were presented for inspection of labels, prices, quality, etc., to show the importance of knowing the manufacturers and the quality of their products.

A decision of the group, to participate in the "Train for Korea" drive by filling cigar boxes with educational materials and small items of clothing, was a point of interest for the evening.

The Chickyweemays are: Diana Cartwright, Gerry Flink, Connie Meyer, Joyce Neavill, Sharon Pepple, Martha Dement, Sharon Longton, Kay Holcomb, Karen Hartsen, Judy Hansen and the guardians, Mrs. Robert Cartwright and Mrs. Emil Flink.
