Short talks by new members took up most of the program at the regular meeting of the Roseburg Rotary Club at the Hotel Umpqua Thursday noon.

Canyonville Church Sets Weiner Roast

By MRS. PAUL STRAHAN
The First Southern Baptist Church of Canyonville is sponsoring a weiner roast for the teenagers of Canyonville Saturday. All the young people are welcome and are invited to gather at the church by 5:30 p.m. where transportation will be provided to the Boy Scout campgrounds. The young people are asked to furnish the winners, and the church will furnish the buns and refreshments. Games are planned for the evening.

Teachers Named

The new Canyonville Elementary School was occupied by the first three grades May 5. Teachers assigned rooms are as follows: Mrs. George Brinkworth and Mrs. Ethel Huston, first grade; Mrs. Bertha Pritchard and Mrs. Pat Searle, second grade; Miss Rosemary Whitbeck third grade. Mrs. Norman Hanson has been named as the other third grade teacher, but will not assume her duties until next term.

The school board reports that with the occupancy of the new building, the overcrowding in the school will be lessened for the coming year, but as the enrollment increases the necessity of a new and larger high school building will present itself. Even at the present time, a spokesman says, the small rooms in the high school have proved inadequate and hinder both teacher and student from giving maximum effort.

The Lions Club is having another section of cement poured at the Community Youth Center this week. The added slab will make a large dance floor for summer evening dancing. Another project salted by the club is the sale of first-quality brooms, made by the Blind Society. The brooms will sell for about $2, and a Lion's Club spokesman reports the club plans to sell about 250 brooms.
