YONCALLA STUDY CLUB HONORS SENIOR GIRLS

Yoncalla High School senior girls and their mothers were honored at a delightful luncheon and entertainment, sponsored each year by members of the Yoncalla Women's Study Club, Thursday afternoon.

The party was held in the fireplace room of the Yoncalla Methodist Church. Theme for the decorations was "Americana." The U shaped tables were artistically decorated.

The Mayflower, George and Martha Washington, Abraham Lincoln, pioneering, and crossing the McHenry River into Oregon were cleverly portrayed by tiny figures, miniature "Mayflower" ceramic figures of George and Martha Washington, log cabins surrounded with trees and negroes, Indians and covered wagons winding their way through the mountains and fording the river. The committee is to be praised for its wonderful work. Mrs. Fred Merk was chairman, assisted by Mrs. Metz, Mrs. Alta Thompson, Mrs. Wayne Rice and Mrs. Clearman.

A delicious luncheon was served at one o'clock. Each senior and mother was presented with a lovely corsage made by Mrs. Cloyce Avey. Following the dinner a fine program was enjoyed, consisting of devotions by Mrs. Cabanes, three vocal selections: "God's Greatest Gift," "Songs My Mother Taught Me" and "When I Grow Too Old to Dream" were presented by Mrs. Chuck Martin with piano accompaniment by Mrs. Jeanette Boucock.

Mrs. J. N. Sparks gave a talk on "What Shall I Choose." Mrs. Ralph Moll gave a reading "Lines to a Daughter." Mrs. Fred Merk gave the address of welcome which was answered by Mrs. Francis Raines, Home Economics teacher in the high school. Mrs. Merk, in behalf of the club, presented each graduate with a gift. Mrs. Metz closed the program, playing several selections on an old "Talking Machine" using cylinder disc records.

Honored guests present included: Miss Barbara Raper, Mrs. Eola Raper, Miss Virginia Boas, Mrs. Billie Boas, Miss Jean Edwards, her mother, Mrs. Herring; Miss Molly Kingery, Mrs. Dore Kingery, Miss Nancy Thompson, Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Francis Raines and Mrs. Jeanette Boucock.

The next meeting of the club will be the last one this year, and will be held at the beautiful new home of Mrs. Gladys Jazek in Elkhead. Mrs. Martin's father from Medford will be present to give a talk on musical instruments, May 19, with Mrs. Jazek as hostess and Mrs. Ida Pinkston as co-hostess.

VISIT TO CHILE MADE BY CHICKYOWEEMAY GIRLS

On Tuesday evening the Chickyowemay Camp Fire Girls "visited" another South American country, Chile, in their current around-the-world travels, in connection with the "Let's Be Different Together" Camp Fire project.

The stewardess for the trip, Martha Dement, gave an entertaining description and explanation of the customs and people of Chile. The dark complexions of the people contrast interestingly with their bright costumes worn in native dances. As a final feature of the stop-over in Chile, Miss Dement served a typical meal of lentils and pork garnished with sausage, rye slices, dates, and a luscious Chilean lanto desert, plus a fruit drink.

Prior to the trip a short business meeting was held and work was done on memory books. It was announced that Chickyowemay "Let's Be Different Together" display in the public library is currently featuring the figurines and native house, representative of Africa made by Karen Bartsch.

Illness somewhat dampened the Chickyowemay meeting this week, as Guardian Mrs. Robert Cartwright was called to Eugene where her mother was ill, while Assistant Guardian, Mrs. Emil Flink was confined to her home by a severe case of mumps. During the absence of the two leaders, Dr. Robert W. Cartwright, sponsor for the group supervised the meeting.

Chickyowemay group members present were: Martha Dement, Kay Holcomb, Diana Cartwright, Sharon Longton, Gerry Flink, Sharon Peppie, Karen Bartsch, Joyce Neavoll, Connie Meyer and Judy Hansen.

YONCALLA GRADE SCHOOL PRESENTS SUCCESSFUL MAY DAY FESTIVAL

Ideal weather conditions made Friday, May 7, one of the outstanding May Day festivals of the Yoncalla Grade School ever witnessed. At 9 a.m. a crowd of parents and friends of the grade school students lined the main street at Yoncalla. The city council cooperated with the school faculty, and closed the street for one and one half blocks to allow the parade to march down without interruption.

The primary rooms, directed by their teachers, Mrs. Al Hoffman, Mrs. Webb, Mrs. Farley and Mrs. Putman, led the parade with a large banner printed with "Yoncalla School Centennial, 1854-1954."

The little tots were all dressed in costumes of 100 years ago. Marching were: first grade, first settlers; 2nd grade, Indians; 3rd grade, pioneer life; 4th grade, pioneer entertainment; 5th grade, early school days; 6th grade, entertainment, "Daisy Bell," with band; "A" band, depression years, accordion music; 8th grade, modern school rhythms, "Oh, Jonny, Oh."

The crowd enjoyed a nice program on the tennis court. Loretta Blickenstaff was crowned Queen of the May. The school bands furnished music for the coronation. Princesses were: Sandra Cook, Sherrie Walker, Carol Shields, Lora Dazgs and Judy Moody. Flower girls were: Judy Scott and Sharon Dapper. Crown bearer was Johnnie Avey. Ted Bowman was grand marshal and Charles Goodwin, announcer.

Program on the court consisted of a pantomime by 1st grade; chorus, songs of that time; rhythm band, pantomime, U.S. mail delivery; Indian visiting the Applegate home; Indian hunting ceremony, 2nd grade; entertainment of 100 years ago, 3rd grade; portrayal of the coming of the railroad, 4th grade; burning the school, 6th grade; march, 5th and 6th grade boys; songs, "Canning the Kaiser" 5th and 6th grade; consolidation, 5th grade; rhythms, "Bird in the Cage," Barn Dance, Schottische, song, "Red Sails in the Sunset," 7th grade; demonstration contrasting physical education program, 8th grade.

A potluck dinner, sponsored by the Yoncalla PTA, was enjoyed under the large trees on the lawn of the school, following the program. The teachers are to be praised for all their untiring work and help in making this "the best ever."

SUTHERLIN REBEKAHS PRACTICE FOR ASSEMBLY

Thursday evening, members of Sutherlin Rebekah Lodge met at the grange hall with Agnes Stout and Juanita Atterbury presiding. Roll call found Violet Sands absent and Nadine Stearns was appointed to fill the office.

Dale and Alice Bonney were admitted as members by transfer and the initiatory degree was put on. The staff is very busy preparing to go to Grants Pass where they will exemplify the initiation at Rebekah Assembly.

During the evening the oldest mother, Mrs. Ella Wegner, and the youngest mother, Mrs. Margaret Mason, were honored.

During the business session the delegates, Mrs. Eunice Beck and Mrs. Mary Barker, were instructed on how to vote on certain amendments at assembly.

At a late hour refreshments were served buffet style by the hostesses, Nadine Stearns, Doris Steinbach, Jean Smith and Ruth Manning, to fifty members. A beautiful centerpiece of iris and tulips was placed on the serving table.

Committees appointed for the May 20, meeting were — Maude Culver, Ethel Kellum, Virginia Williams and Dorothy Hammond.
