JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET LARGE AFFAIR AT YONCALLA

The annual junior-senior formal banquet sponsored each year by the mothers of the junior class of Yoncalla High school was held in the home economics room of the high school Wednesday evening.

Large bouquets of wild and tame flowers were used in decorating. The theme for the dinner was "Mardi Gras." Nut cups were in the shape of ladies heads, with eye masks of various colors. Place cards, nut cups and menu cards all matched, making a striking color scheme for the long table.

Master of ceremonies was Sam Currier, president of the junior class, who also gave the welcoming speech. Following the banquet a fine program was enjoyed, consisting of quartette numbers by T. J. Moore, Melvin Atkinson, Billy Caldwell and Bill Benner. In behalf of the senior class, Bill Caldwell thanked the juniors. George Johnson gave the class prophecy. Gene Edwards of the class will.

Following the banquet the junior and senior classes were invited to the Paul Flury home north of town for a farewell party.

Those present for the banquet were: seniors, Virginia Boan, Gene Edwards, Barbara Raper, Nancy Thompson, Melvin Atkinson, Bill Caldwell, Bob Campbell, George Johnson, Bill Sherman, Darrell Swezey and Jim Weber; juniors; Janice Applegate, Shirley Butler, Bonnie Cain, Ann Lasswell, Lois Parks, Nadine Phillips, Janice Rogers, Jeanne Scott, Audrey Shields, Mary Thompson, Maxine Potter, Bill Benner, Phil Blomquist, Francis Cogswell, Sam Flury, T. J. Moore, and Bill Sanders.

Faculty members present were Mr. and Mrs. Cloyce Avey, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Raines, Tom Mason, Mrs. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Moll.

Junior class mothers furnished and served a delicious roast turkey dinner for the group.

SEWING CLUB MEETS AT SUTHERLIN

Pretty bouquets of spring flowers formed a lovely setting for the one o'clock dessert luncheon given by Mrs. Selma Erickson Wednesday when she entertained her sewing club at her home on East Fourth Avenue.

Those present were: Mesdames Dorothy Rose Dee Harvey, Lochie Thompson, Francis Holgate, Myrtle Musgrove, Lenora Payne and Mrs. Erickson.

The afternoon was spent in sewing and visiting.

Next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Lochie Thompson, date to be set later.

MOTHERS DAY TEA LARGE AFFAIR AT TILLER-DREW SCHOOL

Approximately 100 mothers attended the Mothers Day tea given by the Tiller-Drew School personnel with Mrs. Don Nell Kent, first grade teacher, in charge; and held at the school gym last Friday.

The gym was a mass of spring blossoms. A program, under the direction of Mrs. Ethel Cushman, third and fourth grade teacher, was presented and consisted of vocal solos, chorus numbers, piano numbers, harmonica and boys chorus numbers.

Mrs. Robert Lundquist and Mrs. Larry Byrd poured; Mrs. Bill Howlett, Mrs. Lois Lewis and Mrs. Sue Stickney served the two beautifully decorated cakes. Mrs. George Akers Jr. was in charge of the guest book. Assisting about the rooms were Michael Byrd and Bernice Biss.

Girls of the 6th and 7th grades did baby sitting in the kitchen.

FAIR OAKS GRANGE HAS TUESDAY MEET

Fair Oaks Grange met Tuesday evening at the grange hall with worthy master, Fred Brauning, presiding.

Home Economic's chairman, Jennie Harrison, reported on the HE club meeting and announced that the grange church Sunday would be May 23 with a potluck dinner at noon, and that the Rev. Lloyd Whitford would give the message. The community is invited to attend.

Douglas County Pomona will be held at Sunnydale Grange on Saturday, May 29, with a potluck supper at seven o'clock.

Mrs. Dorothy McCormack of Drain was a visitor for the evening and gave a short talk.

The lecturer presented an interesting program, consisting of songs, a poem "Dirty Dishes" by Emma Norris; and a game.

At the close of the evening the hostesses Virginia Williams, Nellie Davies and Luella Plueard served refreshments to twenty-six members and one visitor.

SUTHERLIN LADY LIONS HAS ELECTION AND POTLUCK

Lady Lions of Sutherland met Tuesday evening in the social rooms of the Methodist Church for an enjoyable potluck dinner with Mrs. Nelson Grubbe and Mrs. Harry Sprague as hostesses. The tables held pretty centerpieces of spring flowers.
