

ROSES AND ROSE GROWERS

FOUR-YEAR-OLD Daryl Christopher Counts, upper left, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hawley Counts, 609 Reservoir Ave., is starting to garden early in life. He not only plants roses, but helps to tend them in the family garden.

A LARGE ROSE GARDEN is owned by Mrs. J. M. Boyles at her home at 1202 Finlay St. Mrs. Boyles is an enthusiastic gardener and is also prominently known for her talent in flower arrangements. She is shown at upper right arranging a bouquet of tea roses.

MRS. WILLIAM MACHEN, center, is shown in her rose garden at her home at 918 Harvard. Mrs. Machen has won a number of blue ribbons for her exceptionally fine roses. In the background is the beautiful rose climber, Heinrich Gaede.

C. H. FRIDAY, lower left, is an enthusiastic worker in the interests of getting people to grow more and better roses. Mr. Friday is a sweepstakes winner for his roses last year. He resides at 119 Hausley St.

MRS. JERRY STANEK, lower right, loves roses and has them along all the borders of her home garden at 1156 Madrone Ave. She has long been interested in growing roses and flowers from her garden are always of choice varieties.
