

Seeing Double?

No

Just Twins!

CAROL AND CHERYL, 10-months-old twin daughters of Corporal and Mrs. Ranny Morris, are pictured at the upper left. Their father is stationed in Ulm, Germany, and will be out of the army next January. The babies and their mother live with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jones, 1312 W. First St. Paternal grandparents are Alice and Sherman Morris of this city.

TWO SETS OF TWINS in one family are shown at the upper right. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. James Eaton and are Jimmie and Janet, age 6½, and students at the Rose School, and Susan and Sherry, age, 4½. The most important thing to these two sets of twins is Sunday School. They would like to have it seven days a week.

EMILY, left, and Elnora, right (center picture) are the 5-year-old twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kelly of Myrtle Creek and are granddaughters of Mrs. Emily Judd of Roseburg. They are both happiest when at the piano.

SO IDENTICAL that even their parents have to look twice are Jimmy, left, and Ronnie, right (lower left, photo), 7-year old sons of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Barker, Rt. 3 Box 344 A, Roseburg. They attend Fullerton School. They are both interested in art.

BALLET DANCING is the most important hobby right now of Caroline, left, and Catherine right, (lower right picture) 6½-year-old daughters of Mr. and Mrs. R. Elwood Smith, Rt. 2 Box 375, Roseburg. Caroline attends Edenbower School and Catherine attends Riverside School, so even if they are identical, they are learning to be individual.
