Benefit Tea Is Lovely Event At Micelli Home

A silver tea, sponsored by the members of the Altar Guild of St. George's Episcopal Church, was one of the loveliest social events of the week, when it took place at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Micelli on Melrose Road Tuesday afternoon. Guests were invited to call between two and six o'clock and were received by Mrs. Micelli, Mrs. Alfred S. Tyson and Mrs. Fred Lockwood.

Mrs. L. K. Cornwell acted as general chairman of the affair and Mrs. Denning Bronson was in charge of the attractive floral arrangements about the spacious rooms, while the tea table was decorated by Mrs. Jack P. Bathrick. The table was covered by a lace cloth and centered with a bowl holding rose-colored painted daisies, snapdragons, bleeding hearts and coral bells, flanked by crystal tear-drop candelabra holding tall white candles.

Pouring were Mrs. J. C. Hume, Mrs. C. G. Russell, Mrs. M. E. Ritter and Miss Agnes Pitchford. Assisting about the rooms were Lois Westlund, Mrs. Bruce Tuck, Mrs. Dan O'Bannon, Mrs. George Hinsdale, Mrs. Leonard Riley, Mrs. Rudolph Ritzman, Mrs. James E. Judd, Mrs. John Pierce, Mrs. William Fetter and Mrs. Leslie Cummings.

Mrs. A. D. Parr was chairman of the refreshments.

By courtesy of Ott-Ricketts, a Baldwin electric organ was placed in the Micelli home for the occasion and organ music was played throughout the tea hours by Father Alfred S. Tyson, rector of St. George's Episcopal Church.

Assisting about the rooms were: Kay Greenquist, Charlene Boloy, Deborah Corkrum, Evangeline Chapman, Judy Barnhart, Patsy Riley and Carol Ann Hunter.

Proceeds of the affair went to the Altar Guild fund.

ZONTA CLUB HAS SPECIAL LUNCHEON MEETING ON FRIDAY

District 8, —this district—had as their international project the study of Norway for the past year, and they decided that they would like to invite a Norwegian woman here to be entertained in their homes and business, in various American ways in order to promote this international relationship. She will be visiting homes and business of Zontians from Medford north to Edmonton, B.C. Each Zonta club has planned a different type of program for her in order not to interlap in the things she sees and does in America as the Zonta guest.

The "Three D's," a trio from Senior High, composed of Nancy Fromdahl, Joan Phillips, and Nancy Gies, entertained with a group of songs. Miss Jakkellin spoke to the group about her trip here; the difficult times that they had during the war, and how much the aid from America has meant to them when they needed it so badly.

Members of the Roseburg Zonta Club gave her their classification in the club; special information was given to her regarding the work done at the Veterans Hospital—carrying out the T&I program with the high school, which was originated in Roseburg and since spread to many parts of the country, as well as into Canada.

Toward the end of the meeting there was a noisy interruption—the Paul Bunyons took over for a little while, presenting Miss Jakkellin with a special corsage of pine. This was particularly intriguing to her, and she asked many questions of the Paul Bunyons about this booster club.

Mrs. Georgia Roles and Mrs. Etta Lindbloom were in charge of the table decorations which were most lovely with bouquets of white snowballs, pink snapdragons and lavender iris. Other decorations carried out the same color scheme.

The following members were present: Virginia Ashcraft, Lola Gorton, Marian Voeller, Mildred Horn, Gladys E. Foley, Laura Ples, Gladys Amundson, Georgia Roles, Etta Lindbloom, Carmen Clark, Mildred Hennessey, Rita Barcus, Katharine Young, Emily E. Judd, Joy Augustus, Marietta Powers, Edna E. Helgeson, Evelyn L. Frazier, Luverne Von-Schultz, Edith Radabaugh, and the guests of honor.

G.V. WOMEN'S CLUB HAS RECENT MEETING
