KALAMAZOO, Mich. (AP) — A hospital in Kalamazoo is offering free medical care to prospective mothers if:
The child is the mother's fifth, sixth, seventh, or eighth and it is born in 1954.
The Sisters of St. Joseph, who operate the hospital, says it makes no difference where the prospective parents live as long as the child is delivered at the hospital.

Elkton Man Suffers Hurts In Accident

By MRS. C. W. HENDERER
George Curry of Green Acres suffered critical injuries Tuesday when the pickup which he was driving went out of control and plunged over a 200-foot bank into the Umpqua River about 5 miles west of Elkton. He apparently extricated himself from the wrecked vehicle and made his way by passersby. The pickup was demolished.
Raymond J. Hoffman has been hired by School District 34 as custodian of the Elkton High School for the 1954-55 school year. Hoffman was formerly custodian of the Grad School until his resignation in 1953.
Mr. and Mrs. Gene Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hoffman and family drove to Bend over the weekend, where they camped on the Deschutes near the reservoir. They reported fishing as being fair.
A bus load of about 40 pupils under the direction of Mrs. Dorothy Weatherly presented a special program at the Veterans Hospital in Roseburg Tuesday afternoon. They represented the Red Cross Unit. Their program consisted of group singing, skits and musical folk dance.
The various 4-H club groups will take part Wednesday at the grade school in Achievement Day. These groups include: home economics, sewing, knitting and a sheep club. Displays of each group will be shown in the afternoon and also in the evening. They will be judged by the Danish System awards. A special program has been planned for the evening and is open to the public and all parents are cordially invited.
Graveside funeral services were held in the Elkton Cemetery Saturday at 1 p.m. for Elizabeth Owen, 85. Mrs. Owen has lived at Springfield the past two years. She died May 17 at the home of a granddaughter, Mrs. John McMichael. Mrs. Owen was a resident of Elkton for many years.
Mr. and Mrs. Dick Willey and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Henderson and family, and Miss Kathy Crandall drove to Bend Sunday via the McKenzie Pass Highway which was opened last Thursday to traffic. They returned home by way of the Willamette Pass Highway.
Mr. and Mrs. Roderick Bowman and family were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Bowman.
Sig Anderson returned to his home Sunday from the hospital where he underwent surgery last week. He is reported making satisfactory progress.
Virginia Esslinger left last week for a two weeks' vacation in Spokane, Wash.
Dorothy Weatherly spent last week in Portland visiting her parents.

SENTENCE — WITH BONUS
WATERBURY, Conn. (AP) — The city court found itself with a dozen unclaimed crullers used as evidence in a case. The court ordered that they be distributed among six men in the prisoner's cage. The man charged with stealing the crullers got two of them—plus 15 days in jail.

WORST FOOT FORWARD
SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Just when the Salt Lake Bees baseball team wanted to look its best it suffered a 31-5 defeat. It was the largest one-team run total in Pioneer League history.
The Bees, a farm club of the Philadelphia Phillies, were leading the league and Eddie Collins Jr., assistant farm supervisor for the Phils, had come to see them play.
