Myrtle Creek, Winston and Cottage Grove took early leads in the Evergreen Baseball League with winning first rounds.
Myrtle Creek had the easiest time with a 31-run rout of the under-manned Roseburg Eagles while Cottage Grove defeated Yoncalla 6-4 and Winston edged Oakland 7-6 on a tenth-inning home run in closer games.
The Glide-Sutherlin game was postponed at the request of the defending league champions when they could not field a team. It will be made up later.

Myrtle Creek lashed out 29 hits including four home runs off Roseburg pitching to thump the Eagles 31-0.

Arlen Weaver batted in four runs with a base-clearing homer in the sixth. The winner picked up three more sixth-inning runs with Claude Curran tripping with two on.

Other home runs were hit by Gene Clarkson, Charlie Brown and Frank Weber. Weaver and pitcher Wally Richardson led hitting with four hits in seven trips apiece.

Scot Golfer Uses Spade Instead Of Usual Putter

STEVENSTON, Scotland (AP) - Goller Thomas Bell was found guilty Monday of holding out 18 times at the Ardeer course with a spade instead of a putter.
Malicious damage, the law called it.
Witnesses said Bell was suspended from the club for ungentlemanly conduct of a nature not brought out in the testimony.
That night he sneaked on to the links and dug up every one of the greens, removing and hiding the metal cups for good measure.
The judge fined him 10 pounds ($28.00) and he's still persona non grata at Ardeer.

SPLITS And HITS

By Glenn Wellman

Last week saw the end of the keen excitement that accompanies the final week of most any sports season. The final play-offs, league sweepers, and the let-down for both winners and losers of the big trophy battles are over for another season. But bowling still holds a lot of interest even during the summer months, when there will be mixed and men's doubles for the games' real addicts.

IN THE CITY "A" loop, Ken Bushey is dusting off a spot for the trophy his Harmony House keglers won for him in City "B". Parley Dilworth's Business Mens Assurance is assured of that wheel's trophy. In the Industrial Leonard Langley is figuring out a spot in the office of Smith Motors, and thinks he may need a special shelf for his trophy. Up at Sutherlin, Spud Harris knows exactly where the trophy will repose in his M & H Market. In fact, his M & H team has been heckling the "sec" since they won out in the play-off in Friday's Classic League, Umqua Dairy is moving over some milk cans to make room for the trophy Joe Coe's boys picked up, and in the newest league, the "Whiz Kids," captained by Frank Sibor Jr., whiled the rest of the boys from Gilkeson's Station. So, the West Coast Building Supply Co. will have a chance to fulfill its agreement. Last fall when West Coast decided to sponsor a team in the Classic Junior League, it promised the youngsters who compose the team shirts for the next season, provided they could win a trophy. So, the boys worked hard, and the management at West Coast can fix up a location for the hardware.

And of course, the girls' trophy will journey down to Myrtle Creek. The city to our south has always had a team in the ladies' circuit, so we are all glad they now have permanent proof that they can murder the maples.

GOOD BOWLING and good luck gave Jim Bloom high game for the entire association, and high game for both halves in Classic, with 257 and 258. Chuck DeGuire had high in both halves in City B, with 233 and 231. Ted Buettner had first half honors in Industrial with 237 and Woody Maddox in second half, 235. Royd Bruton topped keglers in first-half Commercial with 240, and John Tilley of M & H Market knocked off 254 for second half honors. Oscar Burke and Don Nye divided in Classic Junior with 217 and 223 while Ken Bushey and Bob Hagdon did likewise in City "A." Bob getting 255 to go along with his great 704 series in the first half (Roseburg's all time high series), and Ken Topping in the second half with a 256.

All through the season we've been citing those "near triplets." Well, in the very last night of play John Sanders finally got the only one for the season when he felled timber in the Classic to the tune of three fine 176 games. That is the highest "triplicate" in the history of Roseburg kegling. We just got the arm patch for John in the mail. So that guy who figured out a triplicate in each 3,900 sets was off, as far as Roseburg is concerned, as this one of John's was only one in approximately 7,324 series bowled locally this season.

BEST TURNOUTS ever seen in local circles showed up for the "Summer Mixed Doubles." Last Tuesday night there were six pairs on each pair of alleys. This slowed things down considerably, but did prevent the contestants from having a whole of a good time. At that, some couples had to be turned away, so it has been decided to run the mixed doubles both Tuesday and Wednesday nights. There were nine teams on Wednesday night, without benefit of advertising.
Men's doubles were scheduled to get off to a start last Thursday, but due to the playoff in Classic

Oregon Hunters Bag Less Fowl

Despite a 30,000 increase in wintering waterfowl, Oregon hunters bagged 23 per cent less birds during the 1953 season than in 1952. Figures compiled by C. E. Kebbe, waterfowl management chief for the Oregon State Game Commission, show that 731,831 ducks and geese were taken by hunters during the past season, compared with 936,246 taken during the 1952 season. Of the total, 337,535 were ducks, with mallards, baldpate, and pintail dominating the hunter's bag. Of the 94,286 geese taken, the snow goose and the cackling goose were taken in the greatest numbers.

As in the past, the game commission's four public shooting grounds, Summer Lake, Savvie Island, Warner Valley and Malheur, were well represented, with 19,625 hunters using the areas, taking a total of 28,422 waterfowl. Of the four management areas, Summer Lake proved to be the big duck and goose factory with over 12,000 birds taken.

Best hunting proved to be in the high desert courties of eastern Oregon, especially in Malheur, Harney, and Lake. Fine.

Juniors it was postponed till next Thursday. So any of you boys who want to keep sharp or to get in some extra practice during the summer, be sure to drop in about 7 p.m. next Thursday night. Andy Anderson sent us the finals of his Southern Oregon Tourney, and Poseville sure got its share of the lettuce: Roy O. Young's first in women's, Harmony House fourth in men's. We'll give you the full rundown next week, as we've used about all the space Charlie Stanton will allow for the nonce.

Ducks Capture Western NCAA

EUGENE, Ore. (AP) - The University of Oregon won a berth in the NCAA national playoff at Omaha June 10 when Capt. Pete Williams rapped out a homer to defeat Fresno State 1-0 in the Far West final here Monday.

The winning run came in the third inning of the game which was halted at the end of the fifth by rain. It was one of two hits given up by Fresno State pitcher Ted Wills.

Left fielder Don Peralta crashed into the barrier and knocked himself out trying to grab Williams' hit.

The Fresno Staters, who got four hits off Oregon pitcher Norm Forbes, threatened several times. They left two men on base in the first inning and in the fourth, first baseman Bob Phair was put out trying to stretch a double into a triple.

EUGENE, Ore. (AP) - Oregon won the Far West NCAA baseball championship Monday and also placed five players on the all-star team selected by tournament officials and sportswriters.

The team: Catchers—Neal Marlett, Oregon, and Bob Bennett, Fresno State; pitchers—Ralph Pausig, Southern Cal; Norm Forbes, Oregon; Ted Wills, Fresno State; first base—Dick Schlosstein, Oregon; second base—J. D. Peterson, Fresno State; third base—Pete Williams, Oregon; shortstop—Gerry Mason, Southern California; outfielders—Jack Hannah, Fresno State; George Shaw, Oregon, and Ron Hager, Fresno State.
Mason and Hager were unanimous choices.

Red Sox bloom in June or are they doomed to second division? After a horrible spring of injuries and bad weather forced Lou Boudreau to go with a make-do lineup that didn't, the new month finds the Red Sox settling in for an 18-game home stand in friendly Fenway Park.
They own a three-game winning streak for the first time this season. They've gotten route-going performances from their pitchers in two of their last three contests. And Ted Williams is due to start bustin' out all over after being back in action for two weeks.
If the Red Sox can't move now there isn't much hope they will after the midway point since the first division teams already have a good jump. Boston is 11½ games out of first place.
Boston was the only club in either league to sweep a Memorial Day double-header yesterday. They buried Philadelphia 20-10 in the highest scoring display of the league season, then mopped up 9-0 in the nightcap.
The Cleveland Indians stayed a game ahead of the Chicago White Sox in first place by whipping the White Sox 6-3 on Jim Hegan's eighth-inning home run after losing 6-4 at Bob Keegan's sixth seventh victory in eight decisions.

Washington's senators, who cause the New York Yankees more trouble than an investigating committee, beat the world champions 1-0 on Johnny Schmitz' three-hitter. Then they pushed the second game into extra innings before bowing 7-6 in 10. Spec Shea forced home the winning run with a base-loaded walk.

Detroit rallied in the ninth for a 7-5 victory at Baltimore, then lost 4-2 to the Orioles.
In the National League, rain washed out Cincinnati's doubleheader with the first-place Milwaukee Braves and cut the Chicago-St. Louis twin bill to a single seven-inning contest: won by the Cubs 14-0 on six home runs, two by Hank Sauer.

Brooklyn beat Philadelphia 3-4 on Gil Hodges' 12th-inning home run in a single game. Pittsburgh split with the New York Giants, winning 4-3 after losing on three hits to Ruben Gomez 4-0.

The only significant shift in the standings came in the American League. Boston moved from seventh to sixth and Baltimore from eighth to seventh as Philadelphia dropped to last.
The Red Sox' big day included 27 hits, five of them home runs. Milt Bolling hit two Williams, Jim Piersall and Harry Agganis got one each.

Bill Henry scattered seven hits in the second-game shutout, his third complete game of the year. A bunt, an error, an infield out and Mickey Vernon's single produced the one run Washington needed to beat New York in the opener. Casey Stengel argued the bunt hit batter Fiddie Yost's cap and not tossed out of the game for his vigorous protests.
Baltimore outbit Detroit 14-9 in the first game but left 15 runners stranded. Three runs in the ninth gave the Tigers the decision. In the nightcap Vern Stephens' homer and triples by Jim Fridley and Sam Mele counteracted 11 strikeouts by the Tigers' Billy Hoist.

The White Sox ended Cleveland's 14-game home winning streak in the curtain raiser with the help of two-run homers by Minnie Min-so and Ferris Fain. Hegan's home run broke a 3-3 tie in the second game and the Indians added two more in the ninth.

Ahead 3-1, the Dodgers suddenly found themselves trailing by one run in the eighth at Philadelphia when Smokey Burgess smashed a pinch-hit home run with two aboard. Brooklyn tied it in the ninth after George Shuba doubled. The Phils threatened in the 12th after Hodges had given Brooklyn the lead, putting two aboard after two out. But Duke Snider raced up the center field wall and hauled down Willie Jones' tremendous drive for the final out.

Willie Mays of the Giants continued his hitting spree with his 14th home run in the first game at Pittsburgh. The lowly Pirates nipped on Hoyt Wilhelm for four hits in the ninth inning of the second game for the two runs they needed to gain the split.
