ELKTON THREE LINKS PLANS FOR SILVER TEA

Elkton Three Links club met last Thursday at the home of Gladys Stewart.

Plans were made during the meeting for a silver tea to be held the middle of June. Frances Carney, Marjorie Henderson and Frances Hodson were appointed on the program committee. Refreshments were served by Emma Monner and Gladys Stewart.

GLIDE CAMP FIRE GIRLS HAVE COUNCIL FIRE

On May 18 all of the Glide Camp Fire Girls joined in their grand Council Fire and Fly-Up. As the flames their circle around members from the Waditaka Group lighted torches and as each of the eight laws of Camp Fire was repeated, the torch was set to the center fire, thus beginning the ceremony. Honors and service emblems, given for volunteer service, were presented by the guardians. Mrs. M. R. Weaver and Mrs. W. to star in the service.

Three girls from the Waditaka group, Judy, Janina and Gail. Members of this group are: Anne Schermerhorn, Jolee Miller, Elaine Sinnott, Norma Barker, Phyllis Singleton, Jo Ann Franks, Judy Roberts, Gayle Nelson, Lula Boggs, Luanne Waggoner, Waggoner, Albina Hopper and Juanita Cole.

Anne Schermerhorn, narrator, called on the members of the fourth grade group, the Merry Blue Birds, to star in the service. The Camp Fire Girls Desire, after which they were presented their ties and taken into the circle thus becoming Camp Fire Girls. After the hapsign, Mrs. Wayne Schermerhorn, leader of the Merry Blue Bird group, presented Blue Bird honors and Fly-Up certificates to Veronica Olson, Kay Cox, Carol Gamble, Donna Slavson, Beverly Hennigan, Donna Milford, Beverly Hatfield, Sheila Hatfield, Jill Cunningham, Edna Keys, Grace Ruhn, Carol Hall, Joyce Morgan, Fern Moore, Patsy Gaylor and Arlene Lewis.

Three girls from the Desken Awida group, Pamela Holm, Sheila Bennett and Sharon Polly lighted the candles for Work, Health and Love, and along with Marjorie Joann Walker, spoke of the heritage each country has given to our country, an Indian girl, Sandra Isakson, a Mexican girl, Vanessa Gorton; a Chinese girl, Mykel McArthur; Negro girl, Marilyn Blakely; and two girls from Camp Fire Girls, Patty Reese and Marjorie McClure laid logs on the fire.

The following girls participated in the Blue Bird Fly-Up: Judy Cox, Karen Weaver, Penny Bevans, Linda Nichols, Sandra Eason, Patty Smith and Audrey Hatfield. Three year membership pins were presented to Penny Bevans, Brenda Nichols, Joan H. and Mykel McArthur. Each member of the Hatfield group had fulfilled and passed Woodgatherer rank. Honor and rank heads, 1953 birthday honors, and service emblems were presented by the guardians. Mrs. G. W. McClure and Mrs. Joe W. Walker. Mrs. Gladys Amundson, executive director and special guest, presented the Woodgatherer's ring to each girl and explained the meaning of the symbols on the ring and Trail Seeker charm.

Mother, teachers, Mrs. Amundson and other guests were then invited to join the girls in refreshments served in the shade of the trees on the school ground.

ELKON SOCIETY HAS LUNCHEON

United Christian Missionary Society met at the Christian Church last Wednesday for a potluck luncheon at noon. There were eleven members and eight children present. The afternoon was spent preparing shirts to be sent to the leper colony.

TALK ON MUSIC GIVEN AT YONCALLA STUDY CLUB

One of the outstanding meetings of the year of the Yoncalla Women's Study Club, and the last meeting before fall, was held at the beautiful new home of Mrs. Larry Jazek in Elkhead Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Jazek with Mrs. Lloyd Pinkston as co-hostess was assisted by Mrs. Riggs of Oakland, Mrs. Fred Buruse and Mrs. Mabel Allen. The large rooms were artistically decorated with baskets of "Peace Roses" and Paul Scarlet roses. A delicious chicken salad luncheon was served at small tables holding bouquets of spring beauties.

Mrs. Alta Thompson had charge of the devotions, using the favorite scripture of M.Mrs. Seal McDonald, "The 23rd Psalm." Mrs. Edgar Richard, who has not missed a meeting in 3 years, Mrs. Irvin Rice and Mrs. Annie Kruse, who has been ill for some time, and unable to attend, were honored.

The club and guests were fortunate in having as their speaker, E. Ronald Rice, father of Mrs. Charles Martin, who owns the Music Mart in Medford. His subject was "Music in General," using a clarinet, trumpet, flute, cornet, trombone, symbol, snare drum and saxophone to illustrate his talk. He gave a general description of how a symphony orchestra was formed, using the base tone, then the tenor, alto and soprano as the foundation. Mrs. Martin accompanied her husband to Yoncalla. During the morning Mr. Rice talked with the high school orchestra, and the preceding day with the Scotts Valley students.

Mrs. Russell Scott, Mrs. Janette Boucock and Mrs. Birchell were welcomed into the club which will disband for the summer.

PTA-CAMP FIRE GIRLS WORK AT CAMP TYEE

The Benson PTA with the aid of two Camp Fire groups spent Sunday May 16 at Camp Tyee helping to make the camp ready for the coming season.

Dining hall tables and the fireplace were cleaned and all refuse around the buildings was gathered and piled. Roofs were clean of leaves and debris and the cabins were swept out. The steps to the waterfront were replaced and a bridge was built over a small creek that runs through camp. Those taking part were Mrs. Al Meyer, Lois and Gary; Mr. and Mrs. N. Lehrsbaeh, Niece and Cheryl. Mr. Franklin Piper, Patty and Linda; all from the PTA.

Connie Meyer, Diana Cartwright, Sharon Pepple, Karan Bartsch and Mrs. Robert Cartwright from the Chickwee Camp Fire group; and Judy Stewart, Judy Piper and Mrs. Franklin Piper from the Wicaka Camp Fire group.

Much work is to be done yet and any volunteer help will be appreciated.

ELKTON REBEKAHS MEET RECENTLY

Rebekah Lodge met last Tuesday evening with ten members present. The following officers were in their respective chairs: Evelyn Essinger, noble grand; and Lillie Garrison, vice grand. Following the business meeting refreshments were served by Mary Haines and Marcelle Henderson.

Is There a Fountain of Youth?

The search for a fountain of eternal youth which does not exist is one of the most pathetic efforts in the history of mankind. Keeping healthy, however, is within the reach of those who assume a personal responsibility for their own welfare.
