Flat Bus Tire Holds Band At Myrtle Creek

Myrtle Creek played unexpected host Sunday morning to one of the nation's leading bands. The Dorsey Bros. orchestra didn't stop to play, though.

The stopover was made when a tire on the orchestra's special bus went flat, according to Mrs. Ruth Evans, News-Review correspondent. Repairs were made at Myrtle Creek Garage, operated by Shircliff Bros.

Mrs. Evans said the aggregation was headed for an engagement Sunday night in Grants Pass. While the tire was being repaired, band members played handball.
