

CELESTE SORY, above, proudly shows her horse, "Spunky" and the latter's colt, "Ginger," which she has stabled at Lookingglass Celeste, an ardent admirer of horses, is an excellent rider and spends much of her free time riding. She is employed at Fredrickson's Photo Lab. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin L. Sory of this city.

Horses-Horses-Horses

JEREMY HALLADAY, above, 12-year-old son of Dr. and Mrs. George Halladay, is shown with his horse, "Boots," at the Halladay ranch home on the North Umpqua River at Winchester. "Boots" is a trifle on the frisky-side as the photographer found out when he had a ride after taking the picture.

KAREN HALLADAY, above, 15-year-old daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George Halladay, is pictured with her horse, "Merrie." Both Karen and her brother, Jeremy, are talented pianists. They love all types of out-door sports and are especially fond of horseback riding.

Society

LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER

Sat., June 12, 1954—The News-Review, Roseburg, Ore. 5

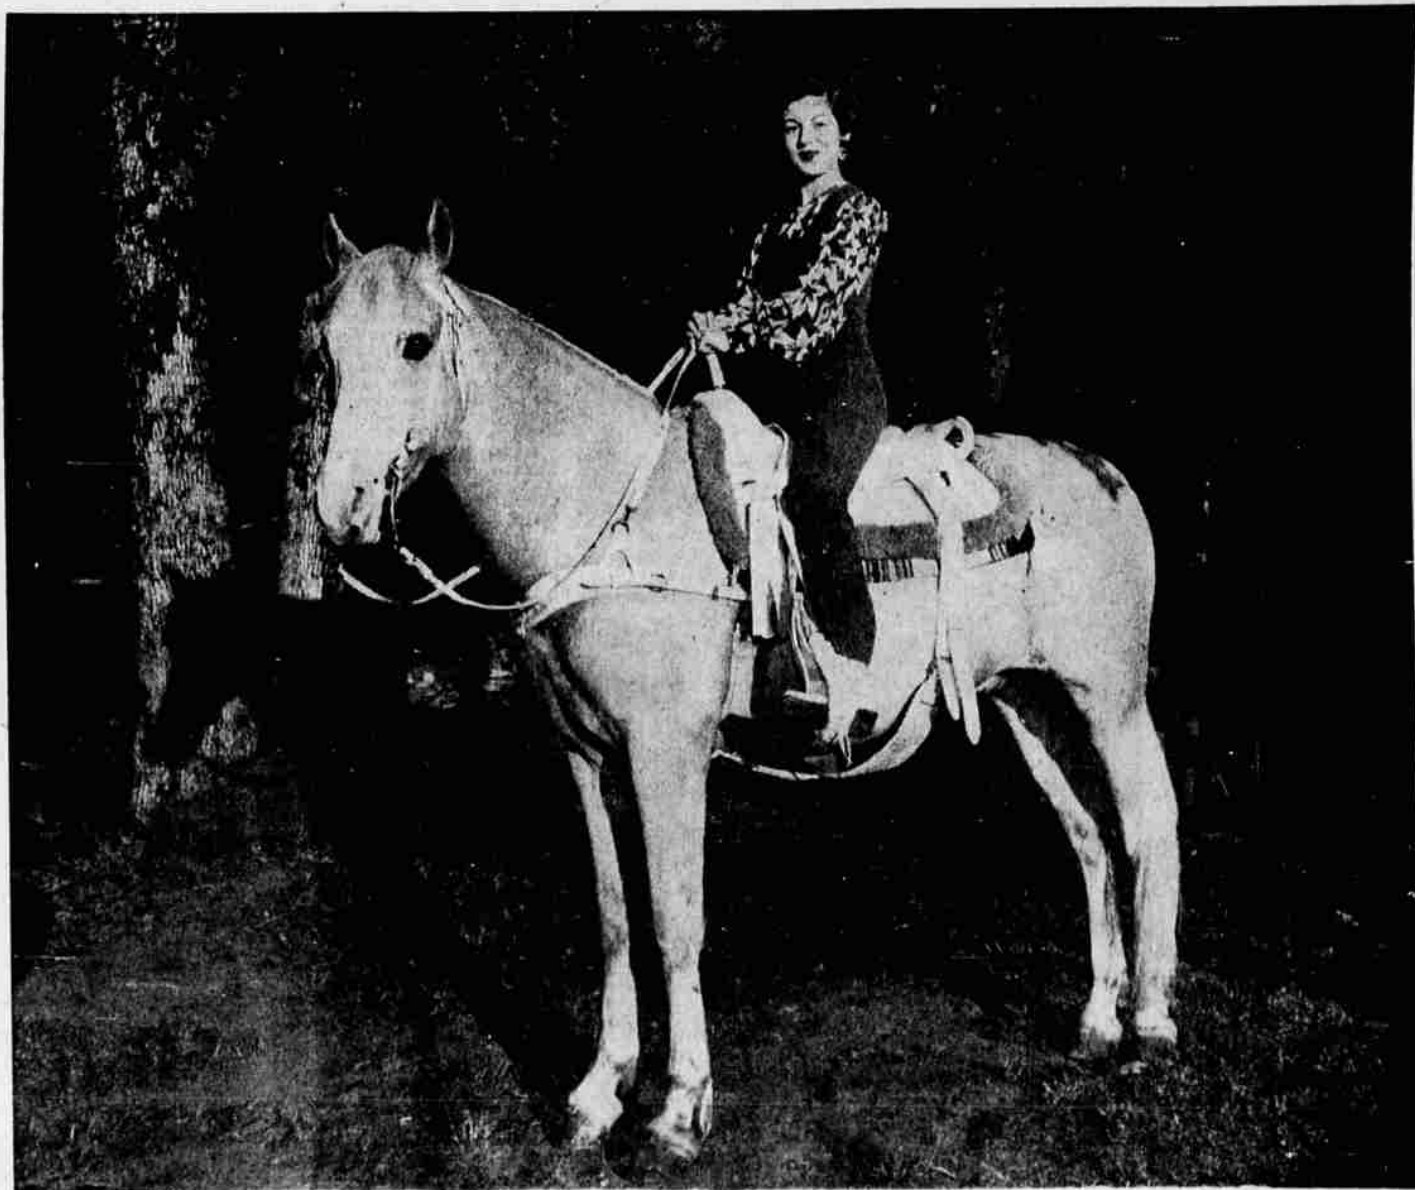

All Pictures On This Page
By "Chris" Of
Fredrickson's Photo Lab

HORSEBACK RIDING has proved to be a most popular hobby among the younger set in Roseburg during the last several years and numerous young people own and care for their own horses. Horse-lovers are plentiful among the adults of Douglas County also, and as a result there is a Sheriff's Posse and many riding clubs boasting large memberships.

THE OREGON countryside at this time of the year is especially beautiful and the many trails and paths around Roseburg are the delight of a great many horseback rider enthusiasts. Every weekend will find saddle club members making trips together and ending with picnic suppers either at ranch homes or at some picnic area.

DONNA BASHFORD, above, and her favorite, "Topper's Candy," are photographed at the ranch home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bashford, Garden Valley. Donna will be a senior at Roseburg Senior High School this fall. She hasn't made up her mind yet whether to take up journalism, be a teacher or maybe a nurse, when she finishes school, but no matter what, one of her favorite sports will always be riding horseback.

JACKIE CARSTENS is Roseburg's talented trick-rider and is in much demand throughout the state at rodeos for her excellent showmanship with her horse, "Sonny Boy," who fairly sent the society editor climbing fences to get out of his high-stepping ways. Jackie, who is employed at the Roseburg Branch of the U. S. National Bank, is the daughter of Postmaster and Mrs. Clyde W. Carstens of Roseburg.