DILLARD BLUE BIRDS ENJOY WIENER ROAST

Busy Little Blue Birds were entertained at a wiener roast and party Wednesday afternoon at the home of their leader, Mrs. Jack Gibson, in Dillard, assisted by Mrs. Betty Jo Brown. The birthdays of the girls were honored with a large decorated cake. Ice cream for the party was furnished by the Blue Bird sponsors, Woman's Society of the Dillard church.

After games and visiting the Blue Birds disbanded for the summer months. Those in attendance were Janet Bromley, Maria Kay Burt Diane Brown, Janice Clouston, Gloria Gibson, Judy Hillmick, Sharon Lancaster, Denise Smith, Penny Hillmick, Margaret Lancaster, Mrs. Merritt Burt, Mrs. Betty Jo Brown and the hostess, Mrs. Jack Gibson.

LOCAL LADIES WIN PRIZES FOR EXCHANGE PARTIES

Mrs. Inca High, of 531 E. Lane St., Roseburg, and Mrs. Ethel Heathorn, of 529 North Jackson, Roseburg are two more lucky winners of prize money for the treasury of their club, the Pythian Sisters Friendship Club. The cash remittances they received covered their club's participations in the popular "Cookie Exchange" parties, sponsored by the Fisher Flouring Mills Company, Mrs. High and Mrs. Heathorn also received special gifts as hostesses at their exchange parties, and all guests have been sent special cookie cookbooks.

The "cookie exchange" idea makes it possible for homemakers to engage in the friendly time-honored custom of exchanging recipes and, at the same time, they are able to enrich their club or organization treasuries. Information about these parties may be obtained by writing the milling company in Seattle.

MRS. DAY HOSTS
DILLARD CIRCLE

Mary Circle of the Dillard WSCS met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Day on Carey Street. The ladies used the theme "Needs for the coming Bible School" in their discussion at the meeting. They are anxious to get some paper garment bags that come from the cleaners to make hats for the small children to rest on at the vacation Bible school which is starting Monday June 21. They are also very active making instruments for a rhythm band.

Election of officers was held and it was voted to reelect the present officers, who are: president, Mrs. Charles Hutton; vice president, Mrs. Yvonne Lansing; secretary, Mrs. Wanda Finney, and treasurer, Mrs. Pat Richey Jr. Highlight of the delicious dessert refreshments was a large cake decorated to look like an open Bible with the verse, Mark 10:14 inscribed on it. This was done by the hostess, Mrs. Day and her assistant, Mrs. Hutton. Guests and members included Mrs. Donald W. Brislain, Mrs. Harry Harryman, Mrs. R. A. Feenstra, Mrs. Vernon Braisch, Mrs. Day and Mrs. Hutton.
