

Harty-Burnett Nuptials Take Place Thursday

Janet Burnett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Perry J. Burnett of Roseburg, was united in marriage to Clifford Harty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Harty of Winston at a charming wedding Thursday evening at the beautiful riverside home of the bridegroom's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Shinn on the North Umpqua River near Roseburg. The lovely bride took her place at the altar on the arm of her father to the recorded music of "Love You Truly." She wore a wedding gown of white nylon net over satin in ballerina length, with an embroidered bodice, and close-fitting hat to match. She also wore a corsage of crimson roses. The ceremony took place before a large fireplace topped with oval mirror which was wreathed in crimson roses. A low bowl of matching roses centered the mantle.

The Rev. R. A. Feenstra, pastor of the Dillard Methodist Church, performed the impressive single ring ceremony before a group of relatives and intimate friends. Les Johnson was best man, and the bride was attended by Miss Elva Scroggins.

The spacious rooms were decorated with bouquets of roses and other summer flowers from the gardens.

Following the ceremony a reception was given. The bridal table was covered with a lovely lace cloth and centered with vases of coral pink rose buds flanked on either side by tall white tapers in myrtle wood holders. After the traditional first piece of the wedding cake was cut by the bride and bridegroom, it was served by Mrs. Jack Butler, sister of the bridegroom. Miss Elva Scroggins presided at the punch bowl. Miss Nancy Burnett, sister of the bride, had charge of the guest book.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding and reception were: Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Taylor and children, Jean, Joan Ann and Larry from Oakridge, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Langdon, Mrs. Lester Langdon and Mrs. Walter Benson of Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Brusseau and daughters, Darlene and Susan Brusseau; Rev. and Mrs. R. A. Feenstra of Dillard, Les Johnson and Miss Elva Scroggins of Winston; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Harty and children, Bob, Linda, Janice, Patricia and Joel Harty; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Butler and son Steven; and Mr. and Mrs. Perry Burnett and children Nancy, Mary Jane and Roger.

The couple is making their home in a trailer house near the Fred Albertus ranch on the South Umpqua River.

YVONNE SHULDTS TO MARRY IN JULY

Miss Ethel Crisler announces the engagement of her granddaughter, Yvonne Shuldts, to Jim Raiser of Roseburg. The wedding will take place July 16 at the First Baptist Church in Roseburg.

The Rev. S. Reynor Smith performed the double ring ceremony in the sanctuary of the First Methodist Church of Eugene. The bride's father gave her in marriage in the presence of her family, and Miss Joanne Gross, Miss Beulah Sutton, Ronald Kress and David Clingman.

The bride was lovely in a pink lace street length dress with white accessories and pink pearls. She carried a bouquet of white and pink carnations with pink streamers. Her attendants, Miss Gross and Miss Sutton, were attractive in identical dresses of pastel printed nylon with white accessories and wearing white corsages.

Following an enjoyable dinner for the wedding party, the couple left on a short honeymoon to Ellensburg and other points of interest in Washington and Oregon.

Following their return to Roseburg a large group of friends and relatives gathered at the home of the bride's parents to enjoy a lovely three-tiered bridal cake and other refreshments.

Mrs. Keitzman has returned to her work at Community Hospital and Mr. Keitzman to his work at Douglas County Lumber Co. They are at home at 1205 Shemanshosh St.

The bride, Doris Jean Dorch, is the lovely daughter of Mrs. Ada Dorch of this city and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sorensen of Summit, N. J. (Picture by Clark's Studio).

Doris Jean Dorch, lovely daughter of Mrs. Ada Dorch of Elgarose, and Herbert Jarvis Sorensen, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sorensen of Summit, N. J., were united in marriage, June 12, at 9 a.m. at St. Joseph's Catholic Church of Roseburg. Father Adenan Sharkey officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, beautiful in the traditional white satin gown with long sleeves, stand-up collar, covered buttons from neck to waist, and with lace border trim, drawn up to form a semi-bustle, was given in marriage by her brother, Joseph Dorch, of Portland. The bride carried a bouquet of roses.

Maid of honor, Miss Kathleen O'Doherty, Seattle, Wash., was gowned in eyelet organdy, ballerina length, in a pastel shade. The bridesmaids, Miss Velma Werth, Miss Nancy Hulings, Miss Rae Bellach and Miss Carmen Cooper wore gowns similar to the maid of honor's and all carried pink carnations.

Best man was Walter Dorch of Seattle, and ushers were Morris Dorch, Portland; Warren Lucas, Gordon Carlson and Jack Loomis, Roseburg.

Mrs. Walter Dorch sang 4 solos during the service, accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Marcella O'Doherty, who also played the wedding music.

Blue delphinium and white larkspur, calla lilies and white stock were arranged in bouquets on the altar. Sprays of white flowers and ribbons decorated each pew.

Following the ceremony a breakfast was given by the bride's mother for thirty guests at the Shalimar Room. A reception was held at the Woman's Clubhouse from 12 noon until 2 p.m. with one hundred guests attending. The bride's sorority sisters of Epsilon Sigma Alpha served the refreshments.

The bride is a graduate of Providence School of Nursing and has been employed as nurse at the V. A. Hospital. The bridegroom is a medical student at Cornell Medical School. The couple left for New York where the bridegroom will finish his schooling. For the trip the bride wore a checked suit with red accessories and a white pique hat.

Out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dorch, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dorch, Seattle; Miss Kathy O'Doherty of Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Dorch, Miss Sophia Langis, Mrs. Margaret Duerringer, all of Portland; Miss Mary Grodovig of Oakland, Calif.; Donna Jean Chaprow, Camas, Wash.; Mrs. Clyde Ingram, Sweet Home; and Mrs. Wayne Roberts of Eugene.

MR. AND MRS. KENNETH R. SHANAFELT, above, are pictured following their wedding May 23. The bride, Pauline Jeanette Magness, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert E. Magness of Glendale. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Shanafelt of Roseburg.

In the beautiful garden of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Reese on Little River, Miss Pauline Jeanette Magness, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert E. Magness of Glendale, became the bride of Kenneth R. Shanafelt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Shanafelt of Roseburg, at 2 p.m. Sunday May 23.

As the wedding march was played on an electric organ by Miss Linda Baker, the bride and bridegroom, with their attendants, took their places before a lattice arch decorated with native dogwood and pink rhododendron, and Dr. R. L. Dunn, pastor of the Glendale Christian Church, performed the ceremony. Tim Suhrstedt sang "Eternally."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of white satin fashioned en-train. Her veil was held in place by a tiara of tiny rosebuds. She carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations.

Mrs. James Estabrook, matron of honor, wore a ballerina length gown of green nylon. Bridesmaids, Betty Lewis and LaVonne Gibbons, wore identical gowns of lavender nylon. The matron of honor and bridesmaids carried nosegays of yellow carnations.

David Hill, of Berkeley, Calif., brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The ushers were Douglas Hickman and Jim Bristol.

The bride's mother wore a street length frock of brown and white print. The bridegroom's mother wore an afternoon dress of grey jersey; both mothers wore white gardenia corsages.

Large bouquets of lovely wild flowers were placed about the patio and lawn. Chairs for the guests were placed on the lawn which is scenically situated on the bank of the river. A reception followed the ceremony. The serving table was centered by a tiered wedding cake; the traditional first piece of which was cut by the bride and bridegroom, after which Mrs. Alice Milford of Roseburg served the cakes. Mrs. Millard Magness of Roseburg served punch and Mrs. William Magness of
