MRS. SOUTHWICK IS GUEST SPEAKER AT YONCALLA WSCS

At the regular missionary meeting of the WSCS of the Yoncalla Methodist Church, held Thursday afternoon, Mrs. Fred Southwick of Roseburg was guest speaker. Mrs. Southwick who is with the speech department of the Women's Christian Temperance Union spoke on the work of the WCTU. Five children accompanied her and put on a short program on alcoholism.

The children were working for bronze medals. Children entering the contest were Nancy Grass, Faye Ollivant, Marvin Patterson, Betty Jo Pillion and Retta Peterson. The three judges gave an award to Marvin Patterson.

Mrs. Southwick has been in WCTU work for several years. Other guests present included Mrs. A. H. Marsh and Mrs. Robert Patterson. Mrs. Marsh also gave a short talk, stating that there are 174 children between the ages of 4 to 18 years of age now at the Farm Home near Corvallis.

Mrs. Elmer Currier, president of the society, had a membership card with her that had been issued to her grandmother in 1886 from the Friends Church in West Elkton, Ohio, by the WCTU.

Mrs. Ileana Pontius, retiring president, received a nice gift from the society. The church kitchen has been replenished with a new electric hot water heater, two new teapots, a new coffee pot and new dish pans.

The next meeting of the society will be June 22 with Mrs. Charlie Kirkle and Mrs. Noble Snider, hostesses.
