PCL All-Stars Triumph Over Hollywood, 11-7

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Pacific Coast League's top funnymen, Chesty Chet Johnson, who at 36 is still a good southpaw pitcher, was the hero Monday night as he starred in an 11-7 victory scored by a PCL all-star team over the league-leading Hollywood Stars.

Hollywood, playing on its home ground, led 6-2 going into the seventh. Then the All-Stars got going at the expense of Fred Strobel, portly right hander. Seattle's Ray Orteig homered with one aboard as the All-Stars tallied three runs. In the ninth they exploded for six more after Forrest Main relieved Strobel with the bases loaded. Frank Austin and Harry Elliott singled across three of the runs and with the two men aboard Walt Judnich of Portland poled a home run.

The fellow who really upset the Hollywood club in the final inning was Sacramento's Johnson. He motioned to Strobel that he intended to bunt and when he did, Hollywood third sacker Jack Phillips threw late to second, so there were two on and nobody out, and Strobel was tagged for a single that loaded the bases.

The league resumes its regular schedule Tuesday night with Hollywood paying its first visit to Seattle, Portland at Oakland, Sacramento at Los Angeles and San Francisco at San Diego.
