A lovely June wedding took place at St. George's Episcopal Church in Roseburg Saturday June 12, when Miss Zona Wilshire became the bride of Lt. Richard Donn Carr in a double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Alfred S. Tyson before 200 guests at 8 p.m.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wilshire of Roseburg and is a graduate of Senior High School and Oregon State College where she was a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority. She graduated from college this month.

Lt. Carr is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle B. Carr of Missoula, Mont., and is a graduate of Missoula County High School and OSC at Corvallis and is a member of Sigma Chi. He received his commission June 5 at OSC of 2nd Lt. U.S. Marine Corps and is stationed at Quantico, Va.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a white gown of tulle over satin with train and fingertip veil and carrying a prayerbook with a white orchid and stephenotis. Maid of honor to her sister, Wilshire, wore a gown of cascading dotted white organza over pale blue taffeta, as did the bridesmaids, Miss Mary Ann Lubien, Mrs. Robert Hawes and Mrs. James Dahlstrom, all sorority sisters of the bride. They all wore matching headresses similar to that worn by the bride.

Flower girls, Leslie and Dana Tuck, were adorable in floor length gowns of pale blue net with lace insets over blue taffeta, styled to match the bride's gown. They also wore headresses similar to the bride's.

Best man was Bernard Hoeg, and ushers were Theodore Jacob, James S. Dahlstrom, Richard Wilson, Hollis Augue and Donald Moore.

Mother of the bride wore an evening-blue spun silk dress with white lace accessories with a white orchid corsage. Mother of the bridegroom was gowned in mauve lace with pink accessories and wore a white orchid corsage. Decorations in the church consisted of bouquets of snapdragons and candleabra; white satin pew bows marked the aisles.

Mrs. Homer Grow, organist, played traditional wedding marches and accompanied Harold Mobley, who sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer."

A reception was held at the Parish Hall following the ceremony during which Miss Donna Ray Sparlin furnished music and sorority sisters of the bride dedicated traditional Tri Delta songs to the couple with Miss Marilyn Wilson as soloist.

A four-tiered wedding cake, topped with white bells, and the bridegroom's cake with a good-luck gold horse shoe used as the base, graced the serving table. Miss Ina Farnsworth and Mrs. Margaret B. Adair served the bride's cake; and the bridegroom's cake was served by Miss Karen Wishart. Miss Rose Emily Bond and Miss Donna Lee Osborne presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Ray Wilcox and Miss Carol Ann Wilshire poured. The miniature rice bags were in charge of Miss Dorla and Mr. Dick Wilcox, twin cousins of the bride.

Guest book was in charge of Miss Marilyn Wilson, and Mrs. William Summer had charge of the gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Carr left for the Oregon Caves and points of interest in southern Oregon on a wedding trip and will leave soon for Virginia where he is stationed. For her wedding trip the bride wore a pink tulle gown with black accessories. Lt. Carr was recently presented the Marine Corps Gazette Award, an award given to the outstanding senior Marine Corps candidate.

Out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Lyle B. Carr, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Iseninger, grandparents of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Donald C. Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Hoeg, all of Missoula, Mont.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Burt Carr, Seattle; Miss Mary Ann Lubien, Hollis Augue and Ronald Grabler, all of Seattle Wash. Miss Ardith Germeroth, Hillsboro; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wilcox, Dick and Dorla; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hawes, Mrs. W. W. Stuart, Miss Grace Iseninger, all of Eugene.

Marilyn Wilson of Myrtle Creek; Attorney and Mrs. Kenneth Wilshire and Carol Ann, Lebanon; Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Eriehach, Tiller; Robert Bender, Oakland, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. James Danstrom, Robert Edwards and Miss Betty Shideler, all of Corvallis; Miss Maurine Kain, Beaverton; Miss Donna Lee Osborne, Estacada; Charles Parker, Hawaii; Theodore Jacob, Tillamook; Miss Yvonne Carson, Junction City; Miss Donna Kay Sparling, Moro; Gerald Hulsman, Forest Grove; and Miss Deloris Thompson of Klamath Falls.

Enroute to Virginia, Lt. and Mrs. Richard Carr stopped at his hometown, Missoula, Mont., where a reception was given for them at the Delta Delta Delta sorority on the University of Montana campus in Missoula at which about 200 friends and relatives were present.

Decorations consisted of low arrangements of pansies and white roses.

VIRGINIA BOAN IS BRIDE AT LOVELY HOME WEDDING

Miss Virginia Boan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billie Boan of Yoncalla, became the bride of Otis Underwood Jr. of Drain, son of Otis Underwood Sr. of Clayton, Oklahoma, at a very pretty home wedding, Friday, June 4 at the home of the bride's parents.

The Rev. R. W. Knight, pastor of the Yoncalla Methodist Church, performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of a few friends and relatives.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attractive in a blue linen suit with white accessories and a corsage of pink roses and ferns.

Mrs. Jerry Boan, sister-in-law of the bride, was the bride's only attendant. She wore a navy blue suit with a red rosebud corsage. Jerry Boan, brother of the bride, was best man.

Following the ceremony a reception was held. The rooms of the Boan home were beautifully decorated with large bouquets of roses, ferns and peonies. The cake was first cut by the bride and bridegroom, and then served by the Misses Melba and Sharon Boan, sisters of the bride; Mrs. Marion South and Miss Lora Dagg.

Mr. and Mrs. Underwood will spend a honeymoon in Oklahoma sometime in July. The bride is a graduate of Yoncalla High School, graduating with the class of 1954. The bridegroom is employed in Drain, where they will make their home.

PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN ENJOY FINE PROGRAM

The June meeting of the Woman's Society of the First Presbyterian Church of Roseburg was held at a 10 o'clock coffee hour in the social rooms of the church recently. The serving table was covered with a lovely lace cloth and centered with a beautiful arrangement of sweet peas.

Following coffee a program was presented entitled "Famous Women of the Bible" by the program chairman, Mrs. N. D. Johnson and Mrs. Arthur McMullen. As Mrs. McMullen read the beautiful stories of Hagar, Rebekah, Ruth, the Nabalites, and Jephthah's daughter, the character of each was portrayed in beautiful pantomime within a lovely floral arch. Taking part were Mrs. Isabel Hise, Mrs. Forrest McKay and Mrs. Charles Healy, all dressed in handsome costumes.

A lovely memorial service was read for Mrs. George Kohlhaas by Mrs. Ivan Pickens and a single flower was placed beside the Book of Remembrance in tribute to her memory.

Announcement was made by Mrs. W. M. Campbell, president, of a series of book reviews to be presented next fall by Dr. James Millar, pastor. These reviews will take place at informal morning coffee hours and will be open to the public for a small charge.
