DAVID SMITH IS HONORED ON 89th BIRTHDAY

David M. Smith was guest of honor at a lovely birthday dinner last Sunday evening at the home of his daughter, Mrs. William Melton on Melton Road. The dinner honored his 89th birthday.

Guests enjoying the dinner and beautiful birthday cake with Mr. Smith were: Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Richards of Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Lawrence and three children; Mr. and Mrs. George Kirby and Barbara and Eva; Mr. and Mrs. John Richards and Diana, Tommy and Martin; Mrs. Cora Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton, and Mr. and Mrs. William Melton. Mr. Smith received many lovely presents.

MR. AND MRS. RONALD W. FINK, above, cut the first piece of their wedding cake following their marriage May 22. The bride, Dorothy Dale Finn, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Finn of Roseburg and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Claire Rice of Laysonville, Calif.

At a pretty home wedding Saturday, May 22, Dorothy Dale Finn and Ronald Warner Fink were united in marriage at the home of the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kruse of Melrose.

The Rev. C. N. Currier performed the candle light ceremony at 7:30 p.m. in the presence of the immediate family and a few close friends.

Dorothy Dale is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Finn of Roseburg, and Ronald Warner Fink is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Claire Rice of Laysonville, Calif., and is employed as a truck driver by Shelton and Burr of Glendale and is a graduate of Glendale High School. Mrs. Fink was graduated from Senior High School in Roseburg this spring.

The bride was most attractive in a pink and brown suit. Her bouquet was red rose buds.

Matron of honor was Darlene J. Johnson, cousin of the bride, who was dressed in an eggshell-colored knit suit and carried red rose buds. Douglas Hickman of Glendale was best man.

The ceremony took place before the fireplace which was flanked by large baskets of red roses. Ribbon bows and bouquets of iris formed other decorations about the room.

A small reception followed the ceremony. The beautifully appointed table was covered by a lace cloth made by the bride's grandmother, the late Mrs. Charles Churchill. The wedding cake was served by Mrs. Kruse; Mrs. Clyde Cooper poured and Althea Mead presided at the punch bowl.

Those present for the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kruse, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Cooper, Mr.

Mercy Hospital Service Committee Has Meeting

The Service Committee of the Mercy Hospital Auxiliary held a meeting Thursday evening in the hospital cafeteria. The president, Mrs. R. J. Hatterscheid, welcomed those present and told several anecdotes, some amusing and some serious of the experiences of those inaugurating the Auxiliary service to the patients. According to Mrs. Hatterscheid, the Advisory Board feels that this committee is functioning remarkably well considering the short time it has been working.

Mrs. Victor Bakala, supply chairman, gave a report on supplies and suggestions to the group to increase the efficiency of her committee. Mrs. James G. Richmond, volunteer chairman, thanked the group for the cooperation and announced that Mrs. A. J. Murray will have the schedule during the month of July.

Mrs. Hatterscheid gave a report on the recent trip she and Mrs. B. L. Martia, chairman of the committee, made to Portland where they spent a day studying and working with a similar service group at the Good Samaritan Hospital and Wilcox Memorial.

The instructing nurse, Mrs. Vern Keel, discussed a typical day's schedule, suggesting new services and answering questions. She ended her discussion with the well-received announcement that Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Elliott of 1314 Madrone Avenue had donated a coffee cart and coffee server to and Mrs. Lloyd Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Finn and son Jimmy; Douglas Hickman, Althea Mead, Johnny Trapp and the Rev. Currier.

Mrs. James Bloom is a charter member, already having her jewel pin. Not present to receive her pin was Mrs. Pete Hytrek.
