

District Must Maintain Standards Set By State

ceptable," but says he would rather have seen a little larger amount popular with the people.

The members of the budget committee, though, have stood on this one.

The total budget has been fixed at $2,102,720.96. Not all goes into operation of the schools. Not included are bond payments and interest ($226,200), capital outlay and auxiliary services (transportation, school nurse, school lunches).

Deller Ready Deller, on Wednesday night when the budget committee resubmitted the above total budget figure for a July 14 vote, was ready with a "budget" of operation within the 6 per cent limitation.

The amount asked within the 6 per cent comes to $1,294,605.70. But it will be chopped down more if the budget fails to pass, for revenues from school lunches and adult education (which would be deleted) would not be forthcoming. Actual amount would be $1,176,605.70.

Revenues would come from a levy within the 6 per cent ($362,976.78) and from non-tax-raised sources ($813,628.92).

In an introduction to the "budget," Deller says:

"The proposed revised budget in the June 21 election provided for operational costs of the Roseburg School District for 1954-55. The total number of children for which this budget was planned was about 5,000 (this year's average attendance was about 4,650). Capital outlay was reduced to only supplies to build new furniture for an anticipated increase of 320-350 pupils.

"This revised budget was built to provide a minimum program for 3,000 children on a full day's services, such as transportation, school nurse, a school lunch program and essential supplies for the operation of buildings and the program of studies.

No First Grade

"Another defeat of the budget would make it impossible to provide a 12-year school program on a full-day shift for all the children of our school district. It will be necessary to retrench in every area, every level, every item in the budget and seriously so, to the detriment of the children and to the progress of our community.

"All items not directly associated with the teacher and the child in the classroom must be cut out. This includes school supplies, health nurse, transportation, the lunch program, some of the specialized classes in senior and junior high. Some heavy overloading in classes must be made and some elementary grades must be dropped."

Then he shows specifically what he means.

Because less teachers will be on the payroll (some are looking for jobs even now, it's reported), six schools will be closed—Garden Valley, Riverdale, Melrose, Eden-bower, Winchester, and Joseph Lane Junior High School.

Children at Winchester will go to Wilbur School, which will have a double-shift of pupils—one in the morning, one in the afternoon. Others will be added to classrooms in the remaining five elementary schools and to Central Junior High.

Effect will be a double shift at the junior high and a class load of between 25 and 40 pupils at the elementary schools. The estimated class load is 10-15 more than the maximum in the state standards. The schools now have class loads of just better than state standards.

It'll mean either walk to school for the children or take them to school for the parents, for the transportation program will be lopped from the total school program.

The Deletions

Six hundred fifty incoming first graders will stay home, instead, for there won't be enough teachers or room for first-grade classes. That grade will be eliminated.

It'll mean pack lunches for mothers, for the school lunch program will be tossed out.

It'll mean no more coaches' salaries, and presumably no more athletics. There'll be no librarians, music, art, special education. Agriculture, typing II, metal shop, trades and industry, radio, drama, journalism and the guidance program (dean of boys and girls) will be taken from the senior high school program.

And so it goes through the whole budget. Deletion of teachers' supplies. A bare allowance for upkeep of buildings. No capital outlay. Only $10,000 in an emergency fund, which is enough that only the smallest emergencies would be cared for.

The budget committee, in presenting the budget again, made it plain that July 14 is the last chance. The tax levy must be on the county tax rolls by July 20, and if the budget fails again, there won't be time to formulate a new one.

The schools will be operating within the 6 per cent limitation, and with the above results.

At the time of the Alaska Gold rush, he and his father went there to run a pack train into mining camps along the Yukon for several years.

Mrs. Spring, Injured In Accident, Improves

Attendants at Redding's Mercy Hospital said today that Mrs. Iris Spring, who was critically injured in a head-on car crash June 18, is "much better" and has been showing improvement every day.

Her nurse said, however, that visitors are not allowed. Only her husband, Marion, is allowed to visit. The nurse said Mrs. Spring had "had too many visitors" the past few days.

Mrs. Spring, a fourth grade teacher at Fullerton School in Roseburg, received a concussion and other injuries in the mishap.

In the crash, on Highway 99 in northern California, Mrs. Spring's daughter, Karen Ann Arkell, 15, received fatal injuries. Miss Arkell died June 20. She would have been a junior at Roseburg High School next fall.

Senate Approves Bill Extending Trade Act

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Tuesday passed and sent to President Eisenhower a bill extending the 20-year-old reciprocal trade agreements act to June 12, 1955.

The Senate completed legislative action on the bill by accepting a House change voted Monday.

Originally President Eisenhower sought a three-year extension with new powers to cut tariffs 15 per cent. He dropped this after key Republicans in the House balked and agreed to the one-year bill with no new duty-cutting powers.

Actress June Haver Weds Fred Macmurray

OJAI, Calif. (AP)—June Haver and Fred Macmurray last night achieved their goal—a quiet wedding after one of the most publicized of recent Hollywood romances.

They slipped away from the film capital for a double-ring, civil ceremony at the picturesque Ojai Valley Inn.

The civil rites, churchmen have said, will deprive the actress of the sacraments of the Roman Catholic Church of which she is a member. This is because she was wed previously—in the church—to musician Jimmy Zito and the brief marriage ended in divorce, not recognized by the church. Macmurray is a Presbyterian.

For both Miss Haver, 28, and Macmurray, 45, the marriage culminated a romance each had entered after heartbreak. The actor's wife of 17 years, Lillian, died a year ago.

Essenhower, Churchill Ask Arms Reduction

Prime Minister and the President overcame some British-American differences but left many issues unsettled.

Here are six points of the principles set out in their statement:

1. The two men will continue "in intimate comradeship" their efforts "to secure world peace based upon the principles of the Atlantic Charter, which we reaffirm."

2. They extend "the hand of friendship" to all nations which prove they want to participate in a true peace.

3. They promise to use "every peaceful means to secure the independence of all countries" whose people want it and are "capable" of maintaining it.

4. They believe that "the cause of world peace would be advanced by general and drastic reductions under effective safeguards of world armaments of all classes and kinds." They added: "It will be our persevering resolve to promote conditions in which the prodigious nuclear forces now in human hands can be used to enrich and not to destroy mankind."

5. They called for the organization of regional security systems under the United Nations charter and promised to support them with assistance "when desired by the peoples of the affected countries."

6. They declared their intention, jointly and with other Allied governments, to build up and maintain "the spiritual, economic and military strength" necessary to persevere the purposes they set forth and they said they would promote fuller and freer interchange of goods and services which would benefit all participants.

French Suffer Losses In Troops Withdrawal

SAIGON, Indochina (AP)—The French today announced abandonment of a strong point in central Viet Nam and admitted two days of Vietnamese ambushes had mauled their withdrawing troops badly.

The high command said French and Vietnamese forces pulled out last Friday from An Khe, 250 miles northeast of Saigon and 40 miles west of the China Sea coast. It had been in French hands since 1946.

The French said their forces suffered "serious losses" in an all-day fight with the Communist-led rebels last Friday and more damage in actions continuing into Sunday.

Diaz Resigns, Monson Takes Control Of Junta

Jose A. Sanchez, another member of the three-man junta which succeeded Arbenz, and also quit.

It said Alfred H. Monson, who was the third member of the junta headed by Enrique Diaz, now heads the new ruling group. The other two were listed as Jose Luis Salazar and Maurice Dubois.

The rebels under Castillo Armas had threatened to keep up their fight against the regime headed by Diaz. The Guatemalan radio said Monday afternoon rebel headquarters made no mention of the bombing.

(Private advices reaching New York said the Diaz junta was overthrown in a coup by Col. Monson. He was described as an anti-Communist.

(These advices said Monson was expected to negotiate a settlement of the civil war with Castillo. They added the new government announced political amnesty for all anti-Communists who had been arrested by the Arbenz regime and the end of censorship.)

Diaz, former army chief of staff, took over Sunday night after the army-forced resignation of leftwing President Jacobo Arbenz Guzman. The new military regime promptly outlawed the Communist party, but this failed to placate the anti-Red rebels driving toward the capital from the Honduras border.

Associated Press Correspondent Jack Rutledge, in a dispatch from Guatemala City delayed 18 hours by censorship, reported that the junta had started a roundup yesterday of Communists. He said two Red members of Parliament had taken refuge in the Mexican Embassy.

He said among the first acts of the new military regime had been a shift in the top police command, with Jose Luis Morales Melgar named to succeed Rogelio Cruz Wer as chief of the civil police and J. Antonio Saravia supplanting Jaime Rosenberg as secret police chief.

Arbenz, Rutledge said, was confined under heavy guard yesterday to his private residence in the suburbs of Guatemala City, with an armored car stationed in front. However, the Guatemalan government radio in a broadcast later yesterday said the ex-President was flying to exile in Argentina.

DIVORCES CULBERTSON

NEWFARE, Vt. (AP)—Mrs. Ely Culbertson has been granted an uncontested divorce from her famed bridge expert husband on grounds of "intolerable severity."

WE MOVE INTO OUR NEW HOME

This week we are moving into our brand new $65,000 terminal and warehouse building, located just north of the city limits on Highway 99. Here we'll have plenty of room in an uncongested traffic area for our trucks to load and unload.

The building itself was designed for one purpose only—to help us give you even better motor freight service. The completely protected dock area has loading bays on both sides to accommodate sixteen trucks or trailers at one time. There is a 3650 square-foot warehouse section ready now for commercial and household goods storage. The whole terminal, which also houses business offices, is a good example of modern, functional architecture.

We at Consolidated Freightways have served the Roseburg community for twenty-four years. This is our third move since 1930. Each move has taken us to larger quarters due to our own increased business and the remarkable growth of this area.

All of our "Freighters"—the ten men and women who staff CF's terminal here—maintain their homes in this community. We are proud of Roseburg, of our company and of our new terminal. We invite you to come see our new home.
