

FAIR OAKS GRANGE HAS CONVENTION REPORTS

Fair Oaks Grange held its regular meeting Tuesday night, preceded by a potluck dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Treman and Mr. and Mrs. Ardell Loerts, as hosts, serving twenty members and two visitors.

Fred Brauning presided and several officers were absent because of illness.

The 1st and 2nd degrees were given to Alvin and Lois King by the worthy master.

Home economics chairman, Jennie Harrison, gave a report on the last meeting, and plans for making aprons and fancy work were discussed; the articles to be placed on a display table to be sold at each grange meeting. The next H.E. meeting will be held on July 16 at the hall.

Potluck supper is to be at seven o'clock instead of seven-thirty.

A poem, "Poor Father," was read by Jeannette Loerts.

Mrs. Hazel Scruggs of Tillamook Grange and Mrs. Ella Wegner of Sutherlin Grange, were visitors. They both spoke a few words.

Velma Brauning gave a report on different meetings and what she had learned while attending state grange at Albany.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Harrison, Maggie Francis and Harold Austin visited the grange convention on Wednesday and enjoyed seeing the 6th degree that evening, which was given to 74 members.

Fred Brauning will report on his part in the convention at the next meeting, July 13.

DAHLIA TALK GIVEN AT CHATTER GARDEN CLUB

Chatter Garden Club of Fair Oaks met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Longbrake.

The ladies worked in the garden of the hostess after which Miss Francis Larson gave a very interesting talk on dahlias.

At three o'clock the hostess served strawberry shortcake to Peggy Nelson, Jean Bradley, Maxine Lewis, Irene McGinty, Erma Bradner, Francis Larson, Kay Moore, Evelyn Rader and Bea Zeller.

The next meeting will be held on Wednesday, July 7, at the home of Mrs. Kay Moore.
