AZALEA GRANGE HONORS FATHERS

Friday, June 18, was Father's Night at the Azalea Grange Hall. Women of the grange served a lovely chicken dinner in the dining room, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion.

After the dinner, a program, which included music, skits, and a toast to fathers, was presented. Johnny Newman sang a solo, accompanying himself on the ukelele. This was followed by songs presented by an older boys' chorus. The boys, Harold Tanner, Danny Cooper, Johnny Newman, Larry Mullarkey, Billy Mullarkey, and Lester and Larry Diltz were accompanied by Mrs. Hazel McPherson.

Janet Brady gave a toast to fathers, and Bobby and Jimmy Allen did a tap dance number in costume. Two comedy skits were presented by Opal Austin and Marie Brady, and Leta McCollum, Betty Brady and Maggy Hill.

SUTHERLIN BUSINESS WOMEN TO ENTER FLOAT IN TIMBER DAYS PARADE

Monday evening the Associated Business Women's club of Sutherlin met at the recreation hall of the Sutherlin Homes with Doris Steinbach presiding.

Dolores Jackson was elected to become vice president to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of Betty Spackman.

Two new members, Mrs. Dorothy Wolff and Mrs. Ida Lehman, were welcomed into the club. It was voted to amend the by-laws in order to lower the dues, and to enter a float in the Timber Days parade in August; also to sponsor a junior king and queen.

The date for the club's annual flower show was set for Friday, Sept. 10.

The next regular meeting of the club will be in the form of a picnic; the place to be announced later.

A social hour of games was enjoyed after the meeting and the hostesses, Mrs. Lina Torrey, Mrs. Lucille Chiss and Mrs. Connie Smith served refreshments.

SUTHERLIN LIONS AND LADIES HOLD INSTALLATION CEREMONY

Lady Lions and the Lion's Club enjoyed a eight o'clock dinner Saturday night at the Sutherlin Grange Hall, served by the ladies of the grange. The large spacious hall was beautifully decorated in the club's colors of purple and gold; the long tables held centerpieces carrying out the same motif. Covers were set for forty five Lions and Lady Lions.

Installation of officers was held for the ensuing year as follows: Lady Lions, Mrs. Frank McCorde, president; Mrs. Clifford Hein, vice president; Mrs. E. A. McKinley, treasurer; Mrs. Edwin Holmberg, tail-twister; Mrs. Michael Taylor and Mrs. William Scallion, directors; Mrs. F. W. Thompson, state third vice president, was installing officer for the Lady Lions.

Al Miller, district cabinet secretary from Ashland, installed the men of the Lions Club as follows: Fayette Thompson, president; William Martin, first vice president; Oliver Eggleston, second vice president; Ben Cox, third vice president; Nelson Grubb, secretary; Harold Hamby, treasurer; Ed Bender, lion tamer; Sandy McBride, tail twister; re-elected one year directors, Ivan Bowes and Ed Holmberg; and two year directors, Mike Pefferick and Scotty Sinclair.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Miller of Ashland were guests of the evening. After the installation, dancing and a social time was enjoyed by all.

SUTHERLIN REBEKAHS MEET IN NEW HALL

Sutherlin Rebekah Lodge, No. 218, held its first meeting in the new hall Thursday evening with Agnes Stout, n.g., and Juanita Atterbury, v.g., in their respective stations. Thirty seven members and thirteen past-noble grand's answered the roll call. Three officers were absent and Jacqueline Bird, secretary; Olga Bielman, l.s.m.g.; and Virginia Williams, O.S.G.; were appointed pro-tem.

A committee was appointed to select a junior king and queen for the Timber Days celebration as follows: Madeline Becroft, May Willis and Dorothy Lagore.

A discussion was held on raising money to remodel the hall and a suggestion was made by Kenneth Vandenberg, which was thought feasible and a committee of six were appointed to try and work this suggestion out.

Everyone who so faithfully worked and helped to move the lodge possessions from the Sutherlin Grange Hall to the new hall were extended thanks. It was decided not to have a float for the Timber Days celebration this year.

A committee, consisting of Effie Dickens, Genevieve Cox and Betty Ray, were appointed to sell tickets for the junior king and queen.

This was the last meeting until September, which will be preceded by a potluck supper.
