

MR. AND MRS. RICHARD LYTLE, above, were married June 13 in Baker, Ore. The bride, Roberta Joan Robb, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth M. Robb of Baker. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. K. D. Lytle, 140 W. Lincoln St., Salem, former residents of Roseburg for many years. (Picture by Holman Studio, Baker, Ore.)

Miss Roberta Joan Robb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth M. Robb, Baker, was wed to Richard F. Lytle, son of Mr. and Mrs. K. D. Lytle, Salem, at the Presbyterian Church in Baker Sunday, June 13. The Rev. William H. Thompson officiated at the 4 o'clock services.

Richard F. Lytle attended the Roseburg schools and is a graduate of Senior High School. The Lytles resided in Laurelwood, in what is now the Gordon Smith home, for a number of years. Richard was employed by Copco for six summers in an engineering capacity. He has been in the Army Air Force for the past two years and has just returned from Korea and was discharged from the service, June 7. Both graduated from Oregon State College, he in civil engineering, and she in home economics. The bride has taught school in Estacada for the past two years.

Large silver baskets with pink, yellow and blue flowers formed the setting for the ceremony. Leland Miller, Albany, was organist, and James Lee, North Powder, sang.

Mr. Robb gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a lace and tulle dress with long train of lace. Her fingertip veil was of tulle with a beaded coronet headpiece. The bride's bouquet was a white orchid with lilies of the valley and carnations.

Mrs. Richard Hotchkiss, Burns, was honor attendant and was gowned in blue lace and tulle and carried a bouquet of blue and white carnations. Bridesmaids were Miss Peggy Robb in a pink lace and tulle dress, carrying pink and white carnations; and Miss Beverly Oring white carnations.

Kingsley D. Lytle Jr., Oakland, brother of the bridegroom, was man. Ushers were Jack Olsen and Richard Amo.

Mrs. Robb chose a navy blue crepe dress with pink and navy accessories, and lavender orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a rose lace dress with navy and rose accessories, and a lavender orchid.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's table was covered with a handmade linen cloth with cut work and lace; and centering the table was a four-tier, white cake with light pink roses and light green leaves. Mrs. C. N. Barrett cut the cake. Mrs. Glen Kerrihard and Mrs. Nona Amo poured. Serving were Miss Shirley McCord, Miss Alice Morris and Miss Mildred Patton. Miss Jill Lytle, Oakland, niece of the bridegroom, passed the bridegroom's cake. Mrs. Robert Dunn was in charge of the guest book. Jack Kerrihard was in charge of the gifts.

For her wedding trip the bride wore a navy blue suit, pink and white accessories, and a white orchid corsage.
