Melrose Family Now At Sutherlin

By NETTIE WOODRUFF

Mrs. Cy Wandell and children recently moved from their home on the Callahan Trail road at the foot of the mountain to Plat K road, east of Sutherlin, where they will join Mr. Wandell for the summer.

Wandell and John Burkhardt are operating a saw mill there. Mrs. Burkhardt and children and Mrs. Amy Wandell joined them at the mill for a picnic. Mrs. Amy Wandell is an aunt of Cy Wandell.

Attending School
 Carolyn Pargeter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Pargeter of Melrose is attending business college in Roseburg.

Retta Sutton recently arrived home from Corvallis summer school. This is her first summer school session.

Mrs. R. Z. Barker, her daughter, Donna, and son, Cliff, arrived home Tuesday from Los Angeles where they visited the former's mother, Mrs. Lucy Cummings.

Mrs. Barker's other daughter, Nancy, stayed with her grandmother for a longer visit. She and Donna have visited their grandmother since school was out.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Turner, Melrose Store merchants, are vacationing at coastal points. While they are away, Mrs. Turner's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. DeLapp, from California are attending the store.

Those attending business in Roseburg last week from the Callahan Trail district were Mr. and Mrs. John Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ryther and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Wood.

Ted Reece, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Reece, is working at the Adair Service Station in Roseburg.

Return Home
 Mr. and Mrs. Pete Veenstra recently returned home from a trip to Silver Creek Falls. Mt. Angel Seminary and Oswego Lake, where they went boating. They returned home by way of Salem and Eugene.

Lloyd Herbert of Hillsboro recently came after his father, James Herbert and took him home with him to care for him. Mrs. Ethel Sanders has been caring for him for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Wood and son, Terry Lee, recently visited at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Wood of the Callahan Trail. Wood was on a 20-day furlough from the army. He returned to Ft. Lewis, then came back to Callahan for two days as he was being shipped overseas. He was accompanied by a friend during his brief visit.

Visitors at the Floyd Ryther home are their grandchildren, Larry and Tommy Lee Ryther, of Rivera, Calif. Also here is Mrs. Ryther's brother, Frank Hunter of Eugene.

The Thomas Logging Co. is taking out logs on the Floyd place at Callahan.
