

CORPORAL AND MRS. RON C. CURRIER, above, pose for their wedding portrait following their marriage at the First Christian Church June 27. The bride, Jeanette Malone, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Malone, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Currier, all of Roseburg. (Picture by Jay Golden of Fredrickson's Photo Lab).

A very pretty wedding took place at the First Christian Church of Roseburg, when Jeanette Malone and Cpl. Ron C. Currier were united in marriage Sunday afternoon, June 27, at 2:30 o'clock before 300 relatives and friends by the Rev. Rea Kleinfeldt in an impressive double ring ceremony.

The wedding party took their places before an archway, arranged with climbing roses and flanked by candleholders. The arch and candle holders were made by the bride's father and were presented to the church following the ceremony. Mrs. Lena Poole arranged the flowers in the church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Malone of Roseburg, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Currier, also of Roseburg. She attended the local schools, and the bridegroom is stationed at Fort Campbell, Ky., with the U. S. Paratroopers.

Mr. Currier gave his daughter in marriage. She was beautiful in a gown of white tulle and pink roses and a short train. She carried a white Bible and pink roses.

Gail Currier was maid of honor to her sister. Bridesmaids were Janice Eastman and Marie Barker. The bride's attendants wore pink and aqua formal with matching boleros and carried white carnation nosegays.

Candle lighters were Ralph Barker and Nadine Spears. She wore a yellow formal. Best man was Ken Mead, and Donald Malone was ring bearer. Ushers were Troy Archer, Len Purvis, Ralph Barker and Bill Moats.

Mrs. Jessie Crenshaw sang "Because" and "Day of Days" arranged by the church choral director, Clarence Trued; Mrs. Trued was organist.

Marilee Currier, sister of the bride, was flower girl.

A reception was held in the church parlors following the ceremony for 200 guests. A beautifully decorated wedding cake with punch and coffee was served.

For a short honeymoon trip to points of interest in Oregon and California, the bride wore an aqua colored taffeta dress and her bridal corsage. Cpl. and Mrs. Currier will be at home at Fort Campbell, Ky.

The bride's mother wore a blue dress with white accessories and a corsage of variegated pink baby carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a pink gown with navy accessories and a pink carnation corsage.

Out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Harold Potts, Coos Bay; Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Willard, Coquille; Mr. and Mrs. Gene St. Clair and daughter, Lori Jean, Coquille; Mrs. Effa Spencer, and Flora and Alta Spencer, Eugene; Jackie and Michael Hill, Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Roy D. Currier and sons, Dale, Allen and Warren; Mr. and Mrs. Mel Mead, Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. James Runge and daughter, Lois, and son, Bruce; Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Wodell, Elkhart; Sheila Fitch, Troy Archer, both of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kendall, Dillard; and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gray and Buddy of Eugene.

RETIRED TEACHERS MEET AT WAITE HOME

The Douglas County unit of the Oregon Retired Teacher's Association met Saturday at the lovely home of Mrs. Douglas Waite with Miss Helen Casey as co-hostess.

Following the business meeting, Miss Rosa B. Parrott exhibited her most interesting collection of fans which included: fans of modern times, fans of the time when each lady carried a fan to match her costume, fans from Japan and China, and one especially interesting and which had belonged to Madame Chiang Kai-shek, also fans from Indonesia and Cambodia.

Miss Parrott described the fans and told of a Spanish fan by Goya, an original Watteau, made of sandalwood, water buffalo skins, carved ivory, silk, feathers and pearls. She also described one which held a mirror, behind the feathers so Mam'selle could peek at the condition of her hair and complexion. Miss Casey demonstrated the use of the fan.

During the serving of delicious refreshments, Miss Parrott told the fortunes of the members with a fortune telling fan.

Others present for the occasion were: Verlie Tracy, Doris Ritzman, Olive Walker, Mildred Stewart, Olivia Carnes, Irma Blume, Eva Lane Waite, Edith Ackert, Marie Martens, Maxine Dwyer, Carol Stingley and Irene Walker.
